The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Third Day of February last, prohibiting the Transportation into any Parts out of this Kingdom, of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, will expire upon the Tenth Day of April next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do, at any Time during the Space of Two Months, to commence from the Tenth Day of April next, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry, or convey, or lade, or lay on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained of His Majesty or His Privy Council: But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ, which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled, or delivered up, until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint His Grace George William Frederick Duke of Leeds to be Lord Lieutenant of the North Riding of the County of York, His Grace this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, April 7, 1802.

His Excellency the Count de Woronzow, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Imperial Majesty of all the Russias, having obtained His Imperial Majesty's Leave of Absence from the Court of London for Six Months, had this Day a private Audience of His Majesty, being introduced thereto by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Stephen Cottrell, Knight, Master of the Ceremonies.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Smith, of Combhay, in the County of Somerset, Esq; Son and Heir of John Smith, late of the same Place, Esq; deceased, by Anne his Wife, Daughter of Thomas Charles Lord Viscount Tracy, and Sister of Thomas Charles, John, and Henry, successively Viscounts Tracy, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Grand-Daughter of Jane Viscountess Tracy, Wife of William Viscount Tracy, which Jane Viscountess Tracy, was a Daughter of Sir Thomas Leigh, Knight, eldest Son of Thomas the First, Lord

Leigh, of Stoneleigh, His Royal Licence and Authority, that he and his Issue may assume, take, and use the Surname of Leigh, instead of that of Smith, and bear the Arms of Leigh, such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office:

And also to order His Majesty's Concession and Declaration to be registered in the College of Arms.

Robert Gilbert Livingston Macdonald to be Ensign to a vacant Company in the West Essex Regiment. Dated March 18, 1802.

Whitehall, April 6, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Friday Night last between the Hours of Eight and Nine o'Clock, it is strongly suspected that some Evil-disposed Person or Persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to a Wheat Rick, whereby the same, together with all the Barns, Outhouses, and Offices, (except the Farm-House,) in the Farm-Yard, belonging to John Currie, of Bedwell-Park, in the County of Hertford, Esq; were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Royal Exchange, Sun, and Phoenix Fire-Offices; and a further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Currie to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Tho. Watts.

Isaac Currie, for John Currie.

Navy-Office, March 31, 1802.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Tuesday the 13th of next Month, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, and this Office, with Coals.

At the Court at St. James's, the 24th of

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Tenth of February last, prohibiting the exporting into any Parts beyond the Seas, within the Limits of Europe, of any Sheet Copper, or Copper in Boltstaves, Bars, Sheets, Rings, and Nails, or of Copper in such a State as may be easily converted into, or made useful as a Naval Store, will expire upon the Twelfth Day of April next; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, and command, That no Person or Persons whosoever do, at any Time during the Space of Two Months, to commence from the Twelfth Day of April next, presume to export out of this Kingdom to any Parts beyond the Seas, within the Limits of Europe, any Sheet Copper, or Copper in Boltstaves, Bars, Sheets, Rings, and Nails, or any Copper capable of being converted into a Naval Store, or ship, or lade any of the Articles above-mentioned, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to exporting the same beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, Cap. 2. and also by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, Cap. 34: But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the Exportation of any of the aforesaid Articles from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, respectively, or to any Exportation of any of the said Articles, by, or on board of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships, or Vessels, or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or to any Exportation thereof by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or from the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being, or from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons within the Limits of Europe, nor to the Exportation of any of the said Articles to any Port or Place without the Limits of Europe, provided that in case of the Exportation to any Port or Place without the Limits of Europe, either of Copper being a Naval Store, or of Copper capable of being converted into a Naval Store, the Exporters thereof do first make Oath of the true Destination of the said Articles to the Port or Place without the Limits of Europe, for which the same shall respectively be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Great Britain, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, as the Case may be, to carry the said Articles to the Port or Place, without the Limits of Europe, for which the same shall respectively be entered outwards, and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Great Britain, or of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, as the Case may be, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners respectively, and specified in such Bond of a Certificate or Certificates in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners respectively, as the Case may be, thereby shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Port or Place, without the Limits of Europe, for which they were respectively entered outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of March 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Tenth of February last, prohibiting the exporting into any Parts beyond the Seas, within the Limits of Europe, of any Sheet Copper, or Copper in Boltstaves, Bars, Sheets, Rings, and Nails, or of Copper in such a State as may be easily converted into, or made useful as a Naval Store, will expire upon the Twelfth Day of April next; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, and command, That no Person or Persons whosoever do, at any Time during the Space of Two Months, to commence from the Twelfth Day of April next, presume to export out of this Kingdom to any Parts beyond the Seas, within the Limits of Europe, any Sheet Copper, or Copper in Boltstaves, Bars, Sheets, Rings, and Nails, or any Copper capable of being converted into a Naval Store, or ship, or lade any of the Articles above-mentioned, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to exporting the same beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, Cap. 2. and also by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, Cap. 34: But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the Exportation of any of the aforesaid Articles from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, respectively, or to any Exportation of any of the said Articles, by, or on board of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships, or Vessels, or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or to any Exportation thereof by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or from the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being, or from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons within the Limits of Europe, nor to the Exportation of any of the said Articles to any Port or Place without the Limits of Europe, provided that in case of the Exportation to any Port or Place without the Limits of Europe, either of Copper being a Naval Store, or of Copper capable of being converted into a Naval Store, the Exporters thereof do first make Oath of the true Destination of the said Articles to the Port or Place without the Limits of Europe, for which the same shall respectively be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Great Britain, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, as the Case may be, to carry the said Articles to the Port or Place, without the Limits of Europe, for which the same shall respectively be entered outwards, and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Great Britain, or of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, as the Case may be, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners respectively, and specified in such Bond of a Certificate or Certificates in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners respectively, as the Case may be, thereby shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Port or Place, without the Limits of Europe, for which they were respectively entered outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

TO be sold by Auction, before the acting Commissioners under James Sissons's Bankruptcy, by Bell and Hindry, Auctioneers, at the House of John Clarkson, the White-Hart Tavern, in Kingston-upon-Hull, on Tuesday the 4th Day of May next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon,

The Remainder in Fee-simple, expectant on the Death of Frances Sissons, Widow, aged 72, of and in a Freehold Close, at Ellerker, near South Cave, in the County of York, containing Five Acres, more or less; and of and in Three Copyhold Closes, also situate at Ellerker aforesaid, and within the Manor of Howden, containing together Fourteen Acres, more or less, all in the Occupation of Mr. Jeremiah Hewitt, as Tenant at Will.

For Particulars apply to Mr. Hordon, or Mr. White, Merchants, in Hull, the Assignees under the Bankruptcy; Mr. Jackson, their Solicitor; or the Auctioneers, at the Exchange Sale-Room, in Hull.

TO be peremptorily sold by Auction, before the major Part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Cheetham Murray, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, on Friday the 14th Day of May 1802, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the House of Miss Brightmore, the Red-Lion Inn, in Heaton-Norris, in the said County of Lancaster, the following Freehold Estate, either together or in such Lots as may be agreed upon at the Time of Sale, and subject to such Conditions as will be then and there produced:

The Inheritance in Fee-simple of and in all that large, elegant, commodious, and substantial Messuage or Dwelling-House, with the Barns, Stables, Shippens, and other Out-buildings thereto belonging, situate in Woodley within Bredbury, in the County of Chester, and adjoining to the Turnpike Road leading from Stockport to Mottram, in Longendale, and being within Three Miles of Stockport, and Four of Mottram, in Longendale, together also with the several Closes, Fields, and Parcels of Land, to the said Messuage or Dwelling-House belonging, commonly called or known by the Names of the Hard Earth Meadow, the Calf-Hey Meadow, the Micklebottom, the Wood, the Lower Long Field, the Higher Long Field, the Woodhead Croft, the Coalpit Field, the Marled Earth, the Little Marled Earth, the Further Marled Earth, the Long Stead, the Filly Door, and the Lower Filly Door, containing together, by Estimation, Thirty-five Acres of the Cheshire large Measure, or thereabouts, and now in the Possession of Mr. Morrey and of Mrs. Morrey, Widow, or their Undertenants.

The Estate lies within a Ring Fence, abounds with excellent young Timber, and is for a considerable Length bounded by the River Tame, is very advantageously situated for those wishing to embark in the profitable Businesses of Lime-burning and the Coal Trade, as a Mine under the said Estate, (not more than Nineteen Yards-deep from the Surface of the Ground,) has lately been discovered, of Four Feet thick, Thirty Inches of which is House Coal of the first Quality, and the Remainder of the same Mine is suitable for Lyme or Brick-burning.

The Peak Forest Canal running through the Middle of the said Estate, not only brings Lime Stone to the Premises, at a very moderate Expence, but will be found a very cheap and convenient Conveyance of the Coal got on the same Estate to Manchester and other Places.

There is a Fall of upwards of Forty Yards from the Top of the Coal Pit already sunk to the Bed of the said River, and by Means of a Tunnel, which may be cut at a small Expence, will lay a considerable Quantity of the Coal dry.

Also to be sold at the Time and Place aforesaid, a certain Yearly Rent or Annual Sum of Thirty-six Pounds, reserved and made payable to the said John Cheetham Morrey, and his Mortgagees in Right of, or as a Compensation, for the Privilege of using certain Water running and flowing in or through the above Estate.

For a View of the Estate apply to Mr. Morrey on the Premises; and for further Particulars apply at the Office of Mr. Walters, Solicitor, in Stockport, where a Plan of the Estate may be seen, or at the Office of Mr. Bassett, Attorney at Law, in Manchester.

TO be peremptorily sold to the best Bidder, in One Lot, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster made in a Cause intitled Reed against Goldburn, before the Deputy to His Majesty's Remembrancer of the said Court, at the Exchequer-Office, in the Inner-Temple, London, on Friday the 30th of April 1802, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon, All that Freehold Estate, called Birdhope Craig, situate in the Parish of Elfdon, in the County of Northumberland, and let to Mr. John Davison, Tenant at Will, at the clear yearly Rent of 142l.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the Office of the Deputy to His Majesty's Remembrancer, at the Exchequer-Office aforesaid; of Mr. Ellis, Solicitor, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; Messrs. Dann and Teafdale, Solicitors, Threadneedle-Street, London; Messrs. Purvis and Surtees, Solicitors, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and of Mr. Grey, Solicitor, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn, London.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st of April 1802,

I Have the Honor to transmit to your Lordship, by this Messenger, the Additional Articles to the Convention of the 17/5th June, which have been signed by myself and the Plenipotentiaries of this Crown; together with an Act which I have also concluded with the Danish Plenipotentiary, containing the Accession of that Court to the said Convention and Additional Articles, and its Acceptance on the Part of His Majesty.

Extract of a Letter from His Excellency Lord St. Helen's to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, dated Petersburg, April 2, 1802.

I Have the Satisfaction of transmitting to your Lordship the Swedish Act of Accession to the Convention of the 17/5th June 1801, which was signed (with its Duplicate) on the 30th past, by myself, and the Baron de Stedingk; and Instruments of a like Tenor were at the same Time interchanged between that Minister and the Plenipotentiaries of His Imperial Majesty. I have moreover the Satisfaction of being enabled to assure your Lordship, that the Swedish Ambassador has been distinctly informed by the Count de Kotschoubey, that as the Motives which had occasioned the late Revival of the System of the Armed Neutrality were now happily done away, that System is considered by this Court as completely annulled and abandoned, not only as a general Code of Maritime Law, but even in its more limited Meaning of a specific Engagement between Russia and the other Confederates.

Downing-Street, April 21, 1802.

THIS Morning the Honorable Henry Pierrepont, dispatched by Anthony Merry, Esq; His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the French Republic, arrived with the Ratification by the First Consul of the French Republic, of the Definitive Treaty, signed the 27th of last Month; which was exchanged with Mr. Merry against that of His Majesty on the 18th Instant, at Paris, by the Plenipotentiary of the French Republic.

Downing-Street, April 26, 1802.

Last Night one of the King's Messengers, dispatched by Anthony Merry, Esq; His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the French Republic, arrived with the Ratifications by His Catholic Majesty, and by the Batavian Government, of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, signed the 27th of last Month; which were exchanged with Mr. Merry against those of His Majesty on the 23d Instant, at Paris, by the Plenipotentiaries of His Catholic Majesty and of the Batavian Republic.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS a Definitive Treaty of Peace and Friendship between Us, the French

Republick, His Catholick Majesty, and the Batavian Republick, hath been concluded at Amiens, on the Twenty-seventh Day of March last, and the Ratifications thereof have been duly exchanged: In Conformity thereunto, We have thought fit hereby to command that the same be published throughout all Our Dominions: And We do declare to all Our loving Subjects Our Will and Pleasure, that the said Treaty of Peace and Friendship be observed inviolably as well by Sea as Land, and in all Places whatsoever; strictly charging and commanding all Our loving Subjects to take Notice hereof, and to conform themselves thereunto accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring the Conclusion of the War.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of Our Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of British Mariners, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, various Provisions are made which are directed to take Effect from and after the Expiration of Six Months from the Conclusion of the then existing War, to be notified in Manner therein mentioned; and it is thereby further enacted, that, for the Purposes of the said Act, the Conclusion of the said War shall be holden to be from the Time that the same shall be notified by Our Royal Proclamation, or Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette: And whereas a Definitive Treaty of Peace has been duly ratified between Us, the French Republick, His Catholick Majesty, and the Batavian Republick; We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, for the Purposes of the said Act, hereby to notify and declare the Conclusion of the said War, by this Our Royal Proclamation, to be published in the London Gazette; and We do direct the same to be published accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Public THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an End to the late bloody, extended, and expensive War, in which We were engaged; We therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that the great and publick Blessings of Peace do call for publick and solemn Acknowledgments, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Tuesday the First Day of June next: And for the better and more devout Solemnization of the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Punishment as We may justly inflict upon all such as shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION, For a Public THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an End to the late bloody, extended, and expensive War, in which We were engaged; We therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that the great and publick Blessings of Peace do call for publick and solemn Acknowledgments, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Tuesday the First Day of June next: And for the better and more devout Solemnization of the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Pa-ishment as We may justly inflict upon all such as shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For a Public THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an end to the late Moody, extended, and expensive War, in which We were engaged; We therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that the great and publick Blessings of Peace do call for publick and solemn Acknowledgements, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom called Scotland, upon Tuesday the First Day of June next: And We do strictly charge and command,

That the said Publick Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, on the said First Day of June next, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn or neglect the Performance of so religious a Duty: Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and We charge, That this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market Crosses of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance; and Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published: And We appoint them to send Copies thereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

CEREMONY of the PROCLAMATION of PEACE on the 29th April 1802.

GEORGE R.

OUR Will and Pleasure is, that you give immediate Directions to the Heralds, Pursuivants, and other necessary Officers, to attend the Proclamation of Peace that is to be made on Thursday next, the Twenty-ninth Day of April, in the usual Places, and with the Solemnities customary on the like Occasions; and for so doing this shall be your Warrant. Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

PELHAM.

To Our Right Trusty and Right Entirely beloved Cousin Charles Duke of Norfolk, Earl Marshal, and Our Hereditary Marshal of England; and, in his Absence, to the Principal Officers of Arms.

St. James's, April 29, 1802.

THE Officers of Arms; Serjeants at Arms, with their Maces and Collars; the Serjeant-Trumpeter, with his Mace and Collar; the Trumpets, Drum-Major, and Drums; and the Knight Marshal, and Knight Marshal's Men, assembled this Day, at Half past Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, in the Stable-Yard, St. James's: and the Officers of Arms, being habited in their respective Tabards, and mounted, a Procession was made, at Twelve o'Clock, from thence to the Palace-Gate, where George Harrison, Esq; Norroy King of Arms, read His Majesty's Proclamation of Peace; which being done, a Procession was made to Charing-Cross, in the following Order, viz.

A Party of Life Guards, to clear the Way.

At Charing-Cross Richmond Herald read the Proclamation aloud; and the Procession moved on, in the same Order, to Temple-Bar; the Gates of which being shut, Blue Mantle Pursuivant of Arms left the Procession, and, accompanied by Two Trumpets, preceded by Two Life Guards to clear the Way, rode up to the Gates, and, after the Trumpets had sounded thrice, he knocked with his Cane. Being asked by the City Marshal from within, "Who comes there?" he replied, "The Officers of Arms, who demand Entrance into the City to publish His Majesty's Proclamation of Peace." The Gates being opened, he was admitted alone, and the Gates were immediately shut again. The City Marshal, preceded by his Officers, conducted him to the Lord Mayor, (who was on Horseback, and, with the Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, attended within the Gate,) to whom he shewed His Majesty's Warrant, which his Lordship having read, returned; and gave Directions to the City Marshal to open the Gates, who, attending the Pursuivant back, opened them accordingly, and, on leaving him, said, "Sir, the Gates are open." The Trumpets and Life Guards being in waiting, conducted him to his Place in the Procession, which then moved on into the City, except the Officers of Westminster, who filed off and retired as they came to Temple-Bar. At the End of Chancery-Lane Windfor Herald read the Proclamation. Then the Lord Mayor, with the City Officers, joined the Procession, immediately after the Officers of Arms, in the following Order, viz.

Four Constables.

Six Marshal's Men, Three and Three, on Foot.

Six Trumpets, Three and Three.

At the End of Wood-Street, where the Cross formerly stood, in Cheapside, the Proclamation was read by Chester Herald. The Procession moving on to the Royal Exchange, the Proclamation was there read, for the last Time, by Lancaster Herald.

The Lord Mayor having, upon this joyful Occasion, convened the several Volunteer Corps of the City in order to add to the Splendour of the Ceremony, as well as to deliver to them the Thanks of His Majesty and the Honourable House of Commons for their Services during the War, it became necessary to extend the Procession to Aldgate; whence it returned, through Fenchurch-Street, and up Gracechurch-Street, and passed again through Cornhill, to the Mansion-House; from whence the Procession of the Officers of Arms, Knight Marshal, Drums and Trumpets, and Life Guards, returned through St. Paul's Church-Yard.

The Acclamations of Joy were general from many Thousands of Spectators, who filled all the Streets through which the Procession passed; and, in the Evening, the universal Satisfaction of the People was manifested by the Display of splendid Illuminations in all Parts of the Metropolis.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,
For a Public THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Proclamation of the Twenty-sixth Day of April last, We did appoint and command, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God should be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom called Scotland, upon Tuesday the First Day of June next: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, That the said Day will be inconvenient for the Celebration thereof, on account of the Sitting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland: We, therefore, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that the said General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom called Scotland, upon Thursday the Seventeenth Day of June next, instead of Tuesday the First Day of June next: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, on the said Seventeenth Day of June next, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contempt or neglect the Performance of so religious a Duty: Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and We charge, That this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance; and Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewarties, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published: And We appoint them to send Copies thereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounes, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council That the Prohibitions now subsisting under divers Orders of His Majesty in Council, on the Exportation out of this Kingdom or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and on the Exportation of certain Articles of Naval Stores; and of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ; and also the Prohibition on the Exportation of any Sheet Copper, or Copper in Bolt Staves, Bars, Rings, Sheets, or Nails, or any Copper capable of being converted into a Naval Store, to any Parts beyond the Seas within the Limits of Europe, be, and the several Prohibitions are hereby taken off: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawcener.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS a Definitive Treaty of Peace and Friendship between Us, the French Republick, His Catholick Majesty, and the Batavian Republick, hath been concluded at Amiens, on the Twenty-seventh Day of March last, and the Ratifications thereof have been duly exchanged: In Conformity thereunto, We have thought fit hereby to command that the same be published throughout all Our Dominions: And We do declare to all Our loving Subjects Our Will and Pleasure, that the said Treaty of Peace and Friendship be observed inviolably as well by Sea as Land, and in all Places whatsoever; strictly charging and commanding all Our loving Subjects to take Notice hereof, and to conform themselves thereunto accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring the Conclusion of the War.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of Our Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of British Mariners, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, various Provisions are made which are directed to take Effect from and after the Expiration of Six Months from the Conclusion of the then existing War, to be notified in Manner therein mentioned; and it is thereby further enacted, that, for the Purposes of the said Act, the Conclusion of the said War shall be holden to be from the Time that the same shall be notified by Our Royal Proclamation, or Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette: And whereas a Definitive Treaty of Peace has been duly ratified between Us, the French Republick, His Catholick Majesty, and the Batavian Republick; We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, for the Purposes of the said Act, hereby to notify and declare the Conclusion of the said War, by this Our Royal Proclamation, to be published in the London Gazette; and We do direct the same to be published accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Public THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an End to the late bloody, extended, and expensive War, in which We were engaged; We therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that the great and publick Blessings of Peace do call for publick and solemn Acknowledgments, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Tuesday the First Day of June next: And for the better and more devout Solemnization of the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Puishment as We may justly inflict upon all such as shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the Twenty-sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,
For a Public THANKSGIVING.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS by Our Proclamation of the Twenty-sixth Day of April last, We did appoint and command, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God should be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom called Scotland, upon Tuesday the First Day of June next: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, That the said Day will be inconvenient for the Celebration thereof, on account of the Sitting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland: We, therefore, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that the said General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom called Scotland, upon Thursday the Seventeenth Day of June next, instead of Tuesday the First Day of June next: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, on the said Seventeenth Day of June next, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn or neglect the Performance of so religious a Duty: Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and We charge, That this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance; and Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published: And We appoint them to send Copies thereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

A PROCLAMATION.

For a Public THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an End to the late bloody, extended, and expensive War, in which We were engaged; We therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that the great and publick Blessings of Peace do call for publick and solemn Acknowledgments, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Tuesday the First Day of June next: And for the better and more devout Solemnization of the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer, suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Penmisfament as We may justly inflict upon all such as shall contemn or neglect the same.

St. James's, May 13, 1802.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting), with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty:

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most lively Sentiments of Allegiance, Gratitude, and Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the Return of Peace to the United Kingdom, over which Providence has placed your Majesty, not more conspicuously to govern than to bless.

When we contemplate the Nature of the War in which your Majesty has been engaged, the unexampled Difficulties which have attended its Progress, and, above all, the great Object of Preservation which it had in View, namely, the inviolate Purity of that venerable Structure, our glorious Constitution, at once the Palladium of our Liberties, and the Sanctuary of our Altars, what must necessarily be our triumphant Feelings, as Britons, at the Close of this arduous Contest, which inscribes in the Archives of Europe your Majesty's Navy more proudly pre-eminent than at the Termination of any former War, which, to the Name of the British Soldier, gives a Lustre equal to the Glory of ancient Time, and which records the determined Efforts of your Majesty's People united in Arms.

an impregnable Bulwark for the Protection of every Thing dear to them, and an illustrious Precedent of genuine Patriotism to future Time.

The Voice of Omnipotence has arrested the Devastation of a bloody, extended, and expensive War, and long contending Nations are at length at Rest. Your Majesty's faithful Subjects, who have struggled for the Attainment of this important Period, will, while they appreciate the Blessings of Peace, know likewise to prize its Duties, by which alone those Blessings can be secured. They will perceive that a faithful Adherence to the Laws, and a Reverence for the Constitution that framed them, are inseparable: and that, by their unshaken Loyalty to their Sovereign, their unwavering Attachment to the revered System of our Ancestors, that Constitution has, under Providence, been hitherto preserved, and will be able to stem the Torrent of Ages yet to come.

Your Majesty's loyal Citizens of London renew at this Moment most ardently their fervent Prayers for the long Continuance of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and for every Blessing which your royal Bosom can receive from the Prosperity and Happiness of a free, grateful, and united People.

Signed by Order of Court,

HENRY WOODTHORPE.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this very loyal and affectionate Address, and for your Congratulations on the Restoration of the public Peace.

Your cordial and steady Attachment to Our invaluable Constitution, and the lively Sense you express of the unrivalled Exertions which have been displayed by My Subjects of every Description, are most grateful to Me, and cannot fail to secure to My City of London My constant Favor and Protection.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on William Rawlins, Esq; one of the Sheriffs.

NOTICE TO MARINERS, from the Danish Royal Council of Customs and of the Indies, dated Copenhagen, 6th April 1802.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to order that there shall be a Watch-Light on the Northern Coast of Bornholm, to guide the Navigators of the Baltic, we give Notice, That Examination having been made of the most convenient Place from whence the Light might be most distinctly seen, as well by those who come from the West as by those who come from the East and the North, and who wish to pass between Bornholm and the Coast of Sweden, a Light-House has been constructed on the Mountain called Steileberg, which is situated, by the Compass, about a Quarter of a Mile from the Northernmost Bay of Bornholm. In consequence of the Height of this Mountain, this Light-House will be 272 Feet above the Level of the Water. Although it is lighted by Means of a Coal Fire, it is surrounded by a Glass Cafe or Lanthorn of 14 Feet Diameter, constructed upon a New Principle, so that, in all Weathers, the Flame will rise without Interruption, and the Light will be augmented by it, because that Part of the Cafe or Lanthorn which is on the Land Side, and every Part from whence the Light cannot be seen at Sea, is a Wall, the Interior of which is covered with Plates of polished Black-Tin.

This Light-House will be lighted up for the first Time, on the 21st June 1802, and afterwards it will be continued according to the Terms of the Ordonnance of the 21st March 1705, and of the Proclamation of the 1st February 1799, so that in Summer, that is from Easter-Day to Michaelmas-Day, it will be kept burning from an Hour after Sunset till Sunrise, and in Winter, that is, from Michaelmas-Day to Easter Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset till Sunrise.

Done at Copenhagen, at the Royal Council of Customs and of the Indies, the 6th April 1802.

[Then follow the Signatures.]

TO MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS OF SHIPS,
&c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN.

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid those Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeit:

1st. My Name, B. H. English, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2d. B. H. English is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,
B. H. ENGLISH.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause the Fall of Macclesfield against Blachall, before Edward Leeds, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in Twenty-one Lots, on Monday the 21st and Tuesday the 22d Days of June 1802, between the Hours of Five and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, Sundry Freehold and Copyhold Estates, late of Thomas Blachall, Esq; deceased, situate in the several Parishes of Islington, Hornsey, and Hackney, in the County of Middlesex; in the Parish of Hitchin, in the County of Hertford; in the Parish of Appleton, in the County of Berks; at Swallowfield, near the Road from Reading to Basingstoke, in the said County of Berks; and in the City of Coventry.

And also One Share in the New River Company, and Five Irish Tontine Debentures of One Hundred Pounds each.

St. James's, May 19, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of your ancient City of Durham, presume to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the late most interesting and happy Event—the Return of Peace.

We have beheld with the most sincere Satisfaction the great and meritorious Services of your Majesty's Navy and Army, and the firm and affectionate Attachment of all Ranks of People to your Majesty's Person, and our glorious Constitution:—And we feel, while we are congratulating your Majesty on the Subject of Peace, that should the same Exertions be again requisite, your Majesty's faithful Subjects would again step forward with the same Loyalty, Zeal, and Activity.

Conscious as we are that it is only in Peace we can fully enjoy the Benefits of your Majesty's mild Reign and Government, and of our happy and much envied Constitution, we sincerely hope your Majesty and your faithful Subjects will long enjoy the Blessings of uninterrupted Peace and Tranquillity.

May the Almighty still keep your Majesty, our gracious and beloved Queen, and your Royal and illustrious Progeny, under His most holy Protection; and may your Majesty long reign in the Hearts of an affectionate, grateful, and free People.

Given under our Common Seal the Fourteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

By Order,

Wilkinson, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by Ralph John Lambton and Michael Angelo Taylor, Esqrs. Representatives for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled, with Hearts warmed with Zeal and Gratitude, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Signature and Ratification of the Definitive Treaty, which have put an End to the late bloody, extended, and expensive War.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction we learn that, through the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the unexampled Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, the Differences with Russia, Denmark, and Sweden, have been finally adjusted; and, by the System of the Armed Neutrality being completely abandoned, that the Source of Disputes in future with those Powers is happily removed.

Having an entire Confidence in your Majesty's unwearied Attention to the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of your Subjects, and to the public Welfare, and trusting that, by the Blessings of Peace, the National Commerce, and other essential Interests of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, will be so increased as to render us a happy and flourishing People, permit us to assure your Majesty that we shall constantly endeavour to further your earnest and gracious Wishes and Intentions to preserve unimpaired our glorious Constitution, to cultivate the Arts of Peace, and to transmit its Blessings to our latest Posterity.

[Presented by Charles Bragge, Esq; one of the Representatives for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with heartfelt Gratitude, with an Assurance of our unvaried Loyalty to your Royal Person and Family, and of our sincere Attachment to our excellent Constitution.

and to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on the Re-establishment of the invaluable Blessings of Peace, which, by your paternal Care and Wisdom, will, we trust, be of long and happy Duration, promote the Restoration of our Commerce and Manufactures, and diffuse throughout your Majesty's Dominions Prosperity and Happiness to your loyal and grateful Subjects.

We rejoice in contemplating that, pending the arduous Contest, the Zeal and Bravery of your Armies, and the unparalleled Skill and Intrepidity of your Navy, have extended through the Universe the Fame and Glory of the British Empire.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous; may it be attended and adorned with the Blessings and Arts of Peace, and flourish over a loyal and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, the Third Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Jeremiah Ives, Esq; Mayor, Sir Roger Kerrison, Mayor Elect, and J. Forsler, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the Termination of the late most bloody, extended, and expensive War.

The Return of Peace, Plenty, and Repose to your People, after their late patient and laudable Endurance under the united Pressure of Scarcity and heavy Taxes, must be particularly grateful to your Majesty's Feelings.

Permit us, great Sir, to renew, on this Occasion, our Assurances of an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Principles of that excellent Constitution under which we live.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and that your Dominions may, to the latest Ages, under the Auspices and Government of your illustrious Family, continue to enjoy the Blessings of Peace, Liberty, Prosperity, and Happiness, is, and ever shall be, our sincere and fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal the Fourteenth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Earl Fitzwilliam, Mr. Alderman Wilson, and Mr. Sheriff Darbyshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your antient and loyal City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, beg Leave to repeat our strongest Assurances of our firm, loyal, grateful, and affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government at this Period of general Pacification. At the Close of an arduous and unprecedented Contest, which commenced in Defence of the best and dearest Interests of Society, we have to thank Divine Providence for the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, which have preserved your Throne, protected the civil and religious Liberties of your People, and, we trust, effectually secured them on the solid foundation of lasting Peace.

Posterity will collect from the Page of History what astonishing Proofs of Heroism your Majesty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, during a most awful War, have displayed in the Service of their King and Country, exciting the Admiration of Foreign Nations, and entitling themselves to the warmest Praise and Gratitude of their own.

It is our devout Wish, Sir, that the Lesson which the Inhabitants of the Earth have been taught on this memorable Occasion, may have its due Effect, by convincing them that Establishments of Religion and Order are indispensably necessary to the Happiness of Mankind; and that the People of this Realm, for Ages to come, under the Auspices of your illustrious Descendants, may continue to exhibit to the Rest of the World as perfect a Model of Society as human Nature will admit.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the said City, the Eleventh Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Charles Fanshawe, Esq; Recorder of the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, in our Guildhall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our humble Expressions of Congratulation on the restored Blessing of Peace.

The Contest in which we have been engaged, involved in its Event an Interest of no less Importance than the Security of our Country and Constitution against the Designs of an Enemy, whose Ambition knew no Limits, but the Subjugation of the World. To the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, aided by the unequalled Valor of your Fleets and Armies, under the directing Hand of Providence, we owe our Preservation: to the same Wisdom, favored by the same Divine Influence, we look for the full Enjoyment of the Benefits of Peace; and as we have now the Happiness of beholding the Triumph of Religion and Government over those wicked Principles which lately threatened Dissolution to all civil Society, we beg your Majesty to be assured that our best Energies will be exerted to perpetuate the Triumph, and to cultivate and promote, in our respective Stations and Capacities, those Sentiments of Loyalty, Unanimity, and public Spirit, which have ever regarded your Majesty, (and long, very long, may you continue to be revered) as the Father of your People.

Thomas Floud, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach the Throne with grateful Acknowledgements of your Majesty's parental Regard for your People, in restoring the Blessings of Peace.

We cannot, however, look forward to the Enjoyment of that Repose which your Majesty has procured for us, without expressing our Conviction of the unavoidable Necessity which engaged your Majesty in War, and our Admiration of the Wisdom and Firmness with which your Majesty supported a Contest, involving equally the Security of the Throne and of the People.

It gives us Satisfaction to think, that your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Edinburgh seconded, to the best of its Power, your Majesty's generous Efforts in Defence of the Nation; and we trust, and venture to assure your Majesty, that your faithful Subjects of this City will endeavour, by habits of Industry and good Order, to improve to the best Advantage the Tranquillity which your Majesty has restored.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Bravery and Conduct exhibited by your Forces by Sea and Land, and on that Determination with which your Subjects armed themselves at Home, to defend their Country from foreign and domestic Foes. In this Spirit we recognise the best Pledge of the Permanency of that invaluable Constitution, under which this Nation enjoys that Liberty which others have in vain endeavoured to find in other Forms of Government.

We pray to Almighty God that the Peace may produce all the Advantages which we know your Majesty intended for your People, and that, by its long Continuance, it may give full Scope for your Majesty to follow out those Measures for advancing the Prosperity of the Empire which have uniformly distinguished your Reign.

Long may your Majesty live to enjoy the Thanks and Blessings of your People; and may the Evening of your Life, invariably dedicated to the Service of God and to the Happiness of your Subjects, be undisturbed either by foreign War or by domestic Faction.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council, in Absence of the Lord Provost, this Twelfth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two,

By Neil Macvicar, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers, of the City of Bristol, hasten, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, to offer our Congratulations on the happy Termination of the long and arduous Contest in which we have been engaged—a Contest on the Success of which has depended our best Rights, our Religion, and Independence.

We most sincerely rejoice that, having subdued the Spirit of Innovation in your Majesty's Dominions, having checked the Principles of Anarchy, which were spreading with alarming Rapidity over Europe, and having maintained untarnished and unimpaired the Honor and Independence of these Realms, your Majesty has been at length enabled to conclude a Treaty of Peace with our Enemies, and to terminate the Miseries ever inseparable from a State of Warfare.

We feel confident that the same Disposition which has been uniformly evinced by your Majesty for the Attainment of this Object, and which prompted your Majesty to treat for Peace even in the Moment of Victory, will lead to the Adoption of every Measure for insuring its Duration not inconsistent with our National Honor and Dignity.

[Presented by Charles Bregge, Esq; one of the Representatives for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

Your Majesty has had the Satisfaction of witnessing the Exertions of your Subjects in the arduous Contest in which they have been engaged, Exertions which will distinguish your Majesty's Reign as one of the most brilliant Periods of British Glory. But, severe as these Exertions have been, we do not that they would be renewed with equal Spirit and Perseverance if ever they should again be required for the just Support of your Majesty's Dignity and Honor, and the Security and Independence of your People.

We feel it our Duty to say, that we owe our present Happiness (under the Protection of Divine Providence) to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the unparalleled Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land.

That Almighty God may long continue a Life so justly endeared to the Nation, in the Possession of the Blessings of Peace, and of every other Blessing which the affectionate Wishes of a grateful Country can conceive, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

Signed by Order of the County Meeting,

Thomas Windsor, Sheriff of Berks.

[Presented by the Honorable Thomas Windsor, High Sheriff, the Members of the County, and Sir Joseph Andrews, Bart. Mr. Croft, Mr. Hudleston, Mr. Goodlake, Captain Ximenes, Mr. Fanshott, and Mr. Golding.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, approach your Majesty with our most sincere and unfeigned Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Endeavours in the Restoration of Peace to all your Majesty's Dominions. Fully sensible that the Preservation of our religious and civil Liberty is inseparably connected with the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, we feel it our bounden Duty to make it our constant and fervent Prayer to the Sovereign Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty's Reign may continue to be long and happy over a free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twelfth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by the Honorable W. H. Bourverie and William Hufsey, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Thanks for having graciously restored to your Subjects the invaluable Blessings of Peace, and to congratulate your Majesty on the Termination of the many and unavoidable Calamities of War.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, the Benefits which this happy Event has already produced to the great Mass of your Majesty's Subjects, in the Removal of the most grievous of the Burthens which the public Necessities had required.

May the Divine Providence so order the Hearts of Nations, and their Rulers, as to render these Benefits permanent. May the Wisdom, Firmness, and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils command the Respect of Foreign Powers, and preserve unimpaired the Independence of the British Nation; and may the domestic Tranquillity of these Countries continue uninterrupted, and rest on the solid Basis of the general Happiness.

Whilst we presume to lay at your Majesty's Feet these our fervent Wishes, permit us, at the same Time, to express our inviolable Attachment to the British Constitution, and our unfeigned Reverence for your Majesty's Person.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Portsmouth, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our Heartfelt Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

While we are sensible that we owe this auspicious Event, under the Protection of Divine Providence, to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, we feel it our Duty to say, that we conceive their Deliberations have been most ably supported by your Majesty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, whose Exertions will stand almost unparalleled in the Annals of History.

Your Majesty's Paternal Tendernefs, the Bravery of your Majesty's Forces, and the Wisdom of those who aided your Royal Wishes to gratify your People with the Blessings of Peace will be remembered by all your loyal and dutiful Subjects with that Gratitude which such a happy Event inspires.

That the Hand of Divine Providence which has preserved your Majesty and your Kingdom through so arduous a Contest, may long continue a life so justly endeared to the Nation in the happy Possession of Peace, is the most fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Given under my Hand and Seal, in Common Hall, this Thirteenth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by John Godwin, Esq; Mayor, and the Recorder, attended by the Representatives for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most ardent Affection and Gratitude, and our most sincere Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

After struggling through a Bloody, extended, and expensive War in Defence of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, we want Words to express our Joy at the Termination of the Contest, by a Treaty of Peace, which Leaves us in full Possession of those invaluable Blessings, and asserts and maintains the Honor and Interests of our Country.

To your Majesty's uniform Magnanimity, to the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils in the late Administration, which directed those Exertions of your Majesty's Army and Navy, which were never surpassed, and to the Wisdom and Promptitude with which your Majesty's present Ministers have seized the first honorable Opportunity of entering upon a Negotiation—to these Causes, under the Favor of Divine Providence, we are indebted for the happy Event which is now the Subject of our Congratulations.

Convinced, as we are, that your Majesty is desirous to improve the Blessings of Peace, we at the same Time beg Leave to express our perfect Confidence that your Majesty will always receive the firm and dutiful Support of your loyal Subjects whenever the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of their Country shall be endangered.

That your Majesty may very long enjoy Peace, with a grateful and united People, and that each succeeding Day and Hour of your Majesty's benignant Reign may be marked with increasing Happiness is our fervent and unceasing Wish and Prayer.

[Presented by the Hon. Robert F. Greville, one of the Representatives for the Borough of New Windsor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace.

We are truly sensible that to the Favor of Divine Providence, aiding the persevering Valour of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, through the most arduous struggle in which this Kingdom has ever been engaged, and the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, at a Time when the World was looking for a Prolongation of the dreadful Ravages of War, we are indebted for the Accomplishment of this auspicious Event.

That your Majesty's Dominions, by the Goodness of the same Divine Providence, may long continue to enjoy the Blessings of Peace; that its Progress may be marked by Plenty and Prosperity; and that the Life of your Majesty may be lengthened to the latest Period for your own Happiness, and the Benefit and Advantage of your United Kingdom, is our earnest and ardent Prayer.

Martin Annesley, Chairman.

Reading, May 17, 1802.

[Presented by Francis Annesley, Esq; and John Simeon, Esq; Representatives for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach the Throne to offer to your Majesty our sincere and cordial Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions.

We cannot contemplate the long and arduous Struggle in which this Nation hath been engaged without glorying in the Name of Britons. The Achievements performed by your Majesty's Forces both by Sea and Land have raised the British Name to the highest Point of Distinction, and rendered it at once the Admiration and Envy of surrounding Nations.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a brave, a loyal, and united People in the full Enjoyment of uninterrupted Peace and Happiness, is our most earnest Prayer.

Thomas Cleaver, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir William Elford, Bart. one of the Representatives for the Borough.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull, humbly approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Endeavours to terminate, at length, the Calamities of a War which hath so long afflicted the World.

Permit us, Royal Sire, to express our Confidence that the Wisdom and Energy which so eminently distinguish your Majesty's Councils have been conspicuously displayed before all the Nations of Europe by the illustrious Person, to whose Care and Vigilance your Majesty committed, on this important Occasion, the dearest Interests of your People, and that his Memory will be no less endeared to his Countrymen and to Posterity by the Security and Happiness, we trust, they will derive from a Peace concluded under his Auspices, than by the splendid Name in Arms which his Valour hath achieved.

Mingled with our Thanksgivings for the Blessings of Peace, we most fervently implore that Almighty Power which, during a Nine Years' War, hath protected our Fleets and Armies in the Day of Battle, that your Majesty may long, very long, continue to reign over a free, united, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal the First Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

C. F. Coulson, Mayor.

[Presented by Earl Fitzwilliam and the Mayor of Hull.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, in their Town-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer our grateful Acknowledgments to your Majesty for your paternal Regard towards your People, in putting an End to the late bloody, extended, and expensive War.

Permit us to express our fervent Hope, that under the equitable Auspices of your Majesty, we may long enjoy the Blessings of that Tranquillity your Goodness has restored to us, and that the Welfare and Prosperity of your Dominions may effectually be secured by the Continuance of an Honorable Peace with the neighbouring Nations, by the mild and prudent Administration of our Laws at Home, and by a rigid Attention to public Economy.

May your Majesty, in the full Possession of every Blessing, long continue to reign over a free, united, and grateful People, and to defend that Constitution, by which, under a just and all-directing Providence, our Liberties (and in them the Happiness of us and our Children) can alone be maintained.

John Townshend, Deputy Bailiff of Southwark, Chairman.

[Presented by John Pichin, Esq; Mr. John Alcock, Mr. Davis, Mr. Allen, M. D.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The respectful Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of the Corporation of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull, in Council assembled, participating with your Majesty's Subjects in general in the universal Joy diffused through the Nation by the Termination of the War, are anxious to be among the first to congratulate your Majesty on that happy Event.

Fully relying that the great Objects which your Majesty so justly had at heart, as well in continuing the glorious Conflict, as in embracing the earliest Overtures of Peace are now attained, we beg Leave thus respectfully to tender your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Return of the Blessings of Peace.

Having most cheerfully (as far as in our Power) seconded the Exertions of Government in the common Cause of Protection and Defence during the War, we most faithfully assure your Majesty, that our Endeavours shall now be directed, both in our Individual and Corporate Capacity, in encouraging the Increase and Extension of our Maritime Commerce, and Credit, and promoting whatever may most conduce to the real and solid Interest and Prosperity of this United Kingdom.

That your Majesty may long, very long share with your Subjects, the Happiness of uninterrupted Tranquillity and undisturbed Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws, and Civil Liberty, is our sincere and ardent Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Corporation, the Twenty-ninth Day of April, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

William Hornecliffe, James Frank, Wardens.

[ Presented by Earl Fitzwilliam. ]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Conclusion of a Definitive Treaty of Peace between this Country and the French Republic and its Allies. The Termination of a long and furious Warfare, during which many of the Governments of Europe have been utterly destroyed, and others involved in the most distressing Calamities, must surely afford Pleasure to the Mind of every Friend to Humanity and established Order; and we cannot but reflect with peculiar Satisfaction, that, amidst the Wreck and Desolation of surrounding States, the British Empire has not only remained Whole and inviolate, but that the Firmness of British Councils, and the Valor of British Fleets and Armies, have been permitted, by the Goodness of Providence, to add new and important Colonies to your Majesty's Dominions.

Restored to the Blessings of Peace, and cherished by the Auspices of your Majesty's paternal Care, we trust that the Pressure of those Burthens which our late arduous Contest has produced will, in due Time, be alleviated by a liberal and enterprising Spirit of Commerce abroad, and by extensive Manufactures, and an improved System of Agriculture at Home. May such be the Fruits of returning Tranquillity! May a well-regulated Economy, both public and private, infuse fresh Vigor into our National Resources! And may your Majesty enjoy, to the latest Period of Life, that pure and exalted Happiness which a benevolent Monarch will ever experience in beholding the Prosperity of a free and loyal People!

Given under the Seal of our Corporation this Twelfth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Joseph Forster, Mayor.

[ Presented by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Master and Brethren of the Corporation of the Master Pilots, and Seamen of the Trinity-House, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, do humbly beg Leave to offer to your sacred Majesty our most joyful and sincere Thanks and Congratulations for the great Blessings and Happiness derived to your Majesty's Dominions from the late happy Completion of Peace with all your Majesty's Enemies; an Event which, (under the Direction of Divine Providence,) only the Bravery and Success of your Fleets and Armies, and the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils could hope to obtain; and we hope the present Tranquillity of Europe may be permanent, and that the Effects thereof, combined with a well regulated Economy, both public and private, may produce additional Vigour in our Commerce and national Resources.

We also, on this happy Occasion, most earnestly repeat our unfeigned and constant Wishes for the Health, Felicity, and long Life of your most sacred Majesty, beseeching the Almighty Sovereign of the Universe, long to continue the Prosperity of your Majesty's benign and paternal Reign over this happily United Kingdom.

In Testimony whereof the Master hath hereunto set his Name, and we have caused the Common Seal of our Corporation to be affixed this Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two.

Whitehall, May 15, 1802.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Rupert George, Ambrose Serle, and William Albany Otway, Esquires, to be His Majesty's Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, &c.

Whitehall, May 22, 1802.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Walthall Ridgway Smith, of Newcastle-under-Lyne, in the County of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS, from the Danish Royal Council of Customs and of the Indies, dated Copenhagen, 6th April 1802.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to order that there shall be a Watch Light on the Northern Coast of Bornholm, to guide the Navigators of the Baltic, we give Notice, That Examination having been made of the most convenient Place from whence the Light might be most distinctly seen, as well by those who come from the West as by those who come from the East and the North, and who wish to pass between Bornholm and the Coast of Sweden, a Light-House has been constructed on the Mountain called Steilberg, which is situated, by the Compass, about a Quarter of a Mile from the Northernmost Bay of Bornholm. In consequence of the Height of this Mountain, this Light-House will be 272 Feet above the Level of the Water. Although it is lighted by Means of a Coal Fire, it is surrounded by a Glass Case or Lanthorn of 14 Feet Diameter, constructed upon a New Principle, so that, in all Weathers, the Flame will rise without Interruption, and the Light will be augmented by it, because that Part of the Case or Lanthorn which is on the Land Side, and every Part from whence the Light cannot be seen at Sea, is a Wall, the Interior of which is covered with Plates of polished Block-Tin.

This Light-House will be lighted up for the first Time, on the 21st June 1802, and afterwards it will be continued according to the Terms of the Ordonnance of the 21st March 1705, and of the Proclamation of the 1st February 1799, so that in Summer, that is from Easter-Day to Michaelmas-Day, it will be kept burning from an Hour after Sunset till Sunrise, and in Winter, that is, from Michaelmas-Day to Easter-Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset till Sunrise.

Done at Copenhagen, at the Royal Council of Customs and of the Indies, the 6th April 1802.

Admiralty-Office, April 24, 1802.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old-Bailey, London, on Friday the 28th of May next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

Evan Nepean.

Admiralty-Office, May 17, 1802.

HIS late Majesty having been graciously pleased by His Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th Day of June 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness, and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinfales; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above mentioned may apply, by Letter to Mr. William Pearce, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity, intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea-Officers, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May instant; this is to give Notice, that any Widows, who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows, whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, as soon as possible, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon their Pension or Bounty.

St. James's, May 25, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects the Mayor and Burgeses of your antient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg leave, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection, to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy Termination of that long and arduous Contest, on the Event of which depended our Religion, our Laws, and the very Existence of our glorious Constitution.

With Pride do we contemplate the many brilliant Achievements of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which will render your Majesty's Reign the Boast and Glory of future Ages, and which at length have enabled your Majesty to put a successful Termination to the Calamities of War.

To the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, seconded by the unshaken Loyalty, and unceasing Exertions of a free and grateful People, do we attribute the Extinction of that Principle of Anarchy which at one Period threatened the Destruction of that venerable Constitution which has for Ages been the Boast of Britons and the Admiration of the World.

Conscious of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we shall not cease to offer up our most fervent Prayers to the Almighty long to preserve your Majesty to fill in Glory, Happiness, and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the greatest Blessings upon an affectionate and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventeenth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Joshua Smith, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Return of Peace to the United Kingdom.

When we consider the unexampled Difficulties which we have encountered, and the imminent Dangers with which we have so long been threatened, we feel the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude to your Majesty for the Adoption of those wise and prudent Measures which have so admirably preserved the internal Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions, and which have ultimately secured to us, unviolated and unimpaired, our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties.

To these excellent Measures, and to the gallant Exploits of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which have added such distinguished Lustre to the British Name, and on which we shall ever reflect with Pride and Exultation, do we attribute the Termination of the Calamities of War, and the happy Restoration of external Peace and Security.

That the Blessings we now enjoy may be of long Continuance is our fervent Prayer; but should it ever unhappily be necessary again to resort to Arms in Defence of your Majesty's Crown, and the Support of our just and dearest Rights, we have the fullest Confidence that the same Wisdom and Firmness will appear in your Majesty's Councils, the same unexampled Valour in your Fleets and Armies, and the same Loyalty, Attachment, and Affection in all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, as were so eminently conspicuous during the long and arduous Conflict from which we have just been delivered.

That the Almighty may long preserve your Majesty to reign in Peace and Happiness over a free, loyal, and grateful People, is the most ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Presented by the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer and Joshua Smith, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

TO ALL PEACE OFFICERS.

Warminster, May 21, 1802.
Whereas on Yesterday, being the 20th Day of May 1802, between the Hours of One and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Servant of Mr. Robert Baileys, of Calstone-Mills, in the County of Wilts, driving his Master's Cart with Two Horses, from Warminster, was overtook or met at or near a Place, called South Down Farm, by five Men (at present unknown,) disguised, with their Faces blacked, who took from the Cart divers Quantities of Cloth, the Property of Thomas Aldridge, Peter Warren, and Messrs. John Bleeck and George Strode, all of Warminster aforesaid, Clothiers, and cut, damaged, and spoiled the same, I hereby give you Notice of such Felony as you may do your Duty herein.

ALL Persons who have any Claims or Demands upon the Estate of Mr. William Harwood, late of No. 21, Old Bond-Street, and of Hanwell-Park, in the County of Middlesex, are hereby required forthwith to send an Account thereof to Messrs. Williams and Brooks, of Lincoln's-Inn, that the same may be immediately laid before the Executors.

TO be peremptorily sold by Auction before the major Part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Cheetham Morrey, of Manchester, in the County of Lancashire, Cotton-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, on Friday the 18th Day of June 1802, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the House of Miss Brightmore, the Red Lion Inn, in Heaton Norris, in the said County, the following Freehold Estate, subject to such Conditions as will be then and there produced.

The Inheritance in Fee Simple, of, and in all that capital Messuage or Mansion-House, with the Out-Buildings and other the Appurtenances therunto belonging, situate in Woodley, within Bredbury, in the Parish of Stockport, and County of Cheshire, together with the Closes, Fields, and Pieces of Land, to the said Messuage belonging, situated in Woodley aforesaid, commonly called or known by the several Names of the Hard Earth Meadow, the Calf Key Meadow, the Micklebottom, the Wood, the Lower Long Field, the Higher Long Field, the Woodhead Croft, the Coal Pit Field, the Marled Earth, the Little Marled Earth, the Farther Marled Earth, the Longlead, the Filley Door, and the Lower Filley Door, containing together, by Estimation, Thirty-four Acres of the Cheshire large Measure, or thereabouts, and now in the Possession of Mr. Morrey, Mrs. Morrey, Widow, and of others, as Tenants at Will.

The Mansion is large, elegant, commodious, and modern built, is within Three Miles of Stockport, most delightfully situated on a rising Ground, adjoining to the Turnpike Road leading from Stockport to Mottram, in Longdendale, surrounded with beautiful Gardens, in a high State of Cultivation, extensive Orchards stowed with the choicest Fruit Trees and Pleasure Grounds, in the highest State of Neatness and Perfection; there is also a large Quantity of excellent Outhousing of every Description, suitable to the said Mansion; a Tan-Yard with a Number of Tan-Pits lately in Use, well supplied with good Water, a Bark Mill, and other Conveniences for the Tanning Business; there is also upon the Estate a good Farm House and a Cottage, with convenient Gardens thereunto belonging: Eight or Nine Cheshire Acres of the lower Part of the said Estate, the greatest Part of which being remarkably level, and being bounded for upwards of Six Hundred Yards by the River Tame, and very liberally supplied with several Springs and Rivulets of clear Water, form a very desirable Situation for Printers, Bleachers, or Dyers.

The Whole of the said Estate lies within a Ring Fence, abounds with excellent young Timber, is very advantageously situated for those wishing to embark in the profitable Business of the Coal Trade, and of Brick and Lime burning, there being plenty of good Brick Earth on the Estate; and a Mine of Coal, under about Twenty Acres thereof, (not more than Nineteen Yards deep from the Surface of the Ground) has lately been discovered, of Four Feet thick, Thirty Inches of which is House Coal of the best Quality, and the Remainder of the Mine is suitable for Lime or Brick burning; which Mine ranges for Eight Hundred and Seventy Yards in Length, and Two Hundred and Thirty-five Yards in Breadth, or thereabouts, the Mine dips about Nine Inches at the Yard, and as the Land dips considerably of itself also, the deepest Pit to get the Coal will not be more than about Fifty Yards.

From the Top of the Coal Pit of Nineteen Yards deep already sunk, there is a Fall of upwards of Forty Yards within the Estate, and by Means of a Tunnel, which may be cut at a small Expence, will lay a considerable Quantity of the Coal dry.

There is also another Coal Mine that ranges through the Estate, of Twenty-seven Inches thick, of very good Coal, and not more than Thirty Yards of sinking between the Two Mines, which Mine is now in working, not more than Three Hundred Yards from the Estate, beside other Mines of Coal which are within the Estate, the Peak Forest Canal running through the Middle of the Estate, not only brings Limestone thereto, at a very moderate Expence, but will be found a very cheap and convenient Conveyance for the Coal, Brick, &c. from the said Estate to Manchester and other Places.

Or in the following Lots as shall be agreed upon at the Time of Sale, viz.

Lot 1. The Inheritance in Fee Simple of and in all those several Closes, and Parts and Parcels of several Closes, Fields, and Pieces of Land, situate in Woodley aforesaid, called or known by the several Names of Part of the Hard Earth Meadow, the Longlead, a Slip of Land on the Lancashire Side of the River Tame, Part of the Farther Marled Earth, the Micklebottom, the Wood Part of the Coal Pit Field below the Canal, the Lower Long Field, the Higher Long Field, and the Woodhead Croft, containing, by Estimation, 14 Acres 3 Roods 23 Perches, of the Cheshire large Measure, or thereabouts.

N. B. The Coal under this Lot is intended to be sold with Lot 2.

Lot 2. The Inheritance in Fee Simple of and in all that Messuage or Dwelling-House and Tenement, with a Cottage adjoining thereto, together with the Barn, Cart-House, Garner and Room under the same, Shippons, Orchards, and Gardens, situate in Woodley aforesaid, together with all those several Closes, and Parts and Parcels of several Closes, Fields, and Pieces of Land, situate in Woodley aforesaid, called or known by the several Names of Part of the Hard Earth Meadow, Part of the Farther Marled Earth, Part of the Coal Pit Field, the Little Marled Earth, and the Marled Earth, all lying on the higher Side of the Peak Forest Canal, and containing by Estimation, 15 Acres 1 Rood 27 Perches, of the like Measure, or thereabouts.

N. B. The Coal under this and Lot 1st, to be sold with this Lot.

Lot 3. The Inheritance in Fee Simple of and in all that Messuage or Mansion-House, with the Yard, Orchards, Gardens, Pleasure Grounds, and Outbuildings therunto belonging, situate in Woodley aforesaid, together with the several Closes or Parcels of Land called the Filley Door, the Lower Filley Door, and the Calf Key Meadow, containing by Estimation 3 Acres 2 Roods 8 Perches of the Cheshire large Measure, or thereabouts.

Also to be sold at the Time and Place aforesaid,

A certain yearly Rent or annual Sum of Thirty-six Pounds, reserved and made payable to the said John Cheetham Morrey, in Right of, or as a Compensation for a Privilege of using certain Water running and flowing in or through the above Estate.

For a View of the Estate apply to the said John Cheetham Morrey, who has a Plan thereof, describing the different Lots more particularly, and for further Particulars apply to Mr. Josiah Haughton, of Stockport; Mr. John Shawcross, of Levenshulme, near Stockport; or at the Office of Mr. Walters, Solicitor, in Stockport, where a Map of the Estate may be seen.

THIS Day his Grace the Duke of Portland, Chancellor of the University of Oxford; the Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor, High Steward of the University; the Reverend Dr. Marlow, the Vice-Chancellor; the Reverend Mr. Rodd, and the Reverend Mr. Wetherell, the Two Proctors; and the Delegates appointed by the University to attend on this Occasion, together with the Viscount Montjoy, Viscount Hinton, Viscount Dupplin, Viscount Lewisham, Viscount Duncannon, Viscount Newtown, Lord Rodney, the Honorable Mr. Ward, the Honorable Mr. Allen, the Honorable Mr. Nevill, and the Honorable Mr. Turnour, Members of the University at present, all in their proper Academic Habits, and accompanied by His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, His Grace the Archbishop of York, the Earls of Kinnoull, Dartmouth, Harcourt, the Viscounts Wentworth, Binning, Marsham, the Bishops of Winchester, Salisbury, and Oxford, the Lords Willoughby de Broke and Amherst, the Right Honorable Sir William Scott, and Sir William Dolben, Bart. the Representatives of the University; the Right Honorable William Windham, and several other Noblemen and Gentlemen who were educated at the University, waited upon the King to present to His Majesty the following Address upon the Peace:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our sincere and unanimous Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity.

We rejoice that a War, begun in Justice and Necessity, has at length, by the Favor of Divine Providence, been brought to an honorable Conclusion. But, while we thankfully acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Care in restoring to your People the Blessing of Peace, we cannot forget that your Majesty is equally entitled to our Gratitude as the illustrious Defender of Religion and social Order; and that, in the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, seconded by the heroic Valor of your Fleets and Armies, we found a Refuge from the Storm which threatened to overwhelm us in Confusion and Ruin.

With heartfelt Satisfaction we reflect that, under the Divine Protection, your Majesty and your Royal House have been preserved in Safety amidst all the Distresses and Calamities which have afflicted the greater Part of the civilized World.

We are anxious to assure your Majesty, that, together with the Principles of pure Religion and sound Morality, it shall always be our earnest Endeavour to impress on the Minds of the rising Generation entrusted to our Care a just Sense of the Advantages we derive from your mild and beneficent Government. And our Prayers shall never cease to be offered up to the Almighty that, under your gracious Auspices, we may continue securely to enjoy that free and happy Constitution in Church and State, for which, during the Whole of this arduous Conflict, it has been your Majesty's chief Glory to contend.

Given at our House of Convocation the Twentieth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Receive with peculiar Satisfaction this dutiful and loyal Address with your Congratulations on the Restoration of the public Peace.

Your cordial Expressions of Attachment to My Person and Family, and to our invaluable Constitution, and your unremitting Exertions to impress on the Minds of the rising Generation entrusted to your Care, the Principles of true Religion and sound Learning, are most grateful to Me; and My University of Oxford may rely on the Continuance of My Favour and Protection.

St. James's, May 27, 1802.

THIS Day the Address of the University of Cambridge, congratulating His Majesty on the happy Event of Peace, was presented by the Reverend Doctor Procter, Vice-Chancellor, attended by the following Gentlemen, Delegates from the University: Doctor Mansel, Master of Trinity College; Doctor Jowett, Regius Professor of Law; Doctor Ainslie (for Doctor Harwood, Professor of Anatomy); the Reverend Richard Buck, M. A.

Senior Non-Regent; the Reverend George Adam Browne, M. A. Regent; the Reverend ——— Hopkins, the Reverend Benjamin Parke, Proctors; the Reverend George Borlase, Registrar.

There was a numerous Attendance of the Members of the University; amongst whom were His Grace the Duke of Rutland, the Earls of Euston and Clonmell, Lord Primrose, the Bishops of Bath and Wells, and of Norwich, &c. &c. &c.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of your University of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care in restoring to us the Blessings of Peace.

The Contest in which your Majesty has been compelled to engage in Support of the Independence of your Government, and the Freedom of your People, is unexampled in the History of civilized Nations. For while the Physical Strength of your Kingdom was opposed to numerous Armies, and to Resources never before brought together into Action, the moral and religious Principles of Society were attacked by specious and plausible Doctrines, too gratifying to the corrupt Passions of human Nature, wholly to fail of their destructive Effects. But your Majesty's Arms have triumphed both by Sea and Land over the Efforts of the most formidable Enemies; and the unprincipled Theories of Reform, with all their shallow Sophistries, have at length been exploded with Contempt and Indignation.

In Addition to the Calamities of War, your Majesty's Subjects have also been afflicted with those of Dearth; but the active Benevolence of the Rich, administering to the Wants of the Poor, did not cease to alleviate their Sufferings, and confirm their Resignation to Providence under this severe Visitation; and, what to your Majesty will ever be the Source of heartfelt Satisfaction, your loyal People have displayed during this eventful Conflict, the Fortitude of Heroes, the Zeal of Patriots, and the Patience of Christians.

By the Skill and Intrepidity of your Majesty's Forces, by the wife and vigorous Counsels of your Majesty's Ministers, and, above all, by the uniform Example of Religion and Virtue so eminently exhibited in your Royal Person, we have become triumphant Abroad, and united at Home. But your Majesty has not been so dazzled by the Splendour of Conquest, as to neglect the Means of re-establishing the Blessings of Peace. For no sooner did the Enemy relinquish their unfounded Pretensions, and seem disposed to return to the more sober and practicable Doctrines which they had too hastily abandoned, than your Majesty, no less anxious for the Comfort, than you had been for the Safety of your People, embraced the Offers of Reconciliation, and closed the Horrors of War. It is our fervent Prayer that the Treaty now concluded by your Majesty, may become to the Nations engaged in the late War the Groundwork of a permanent and reciprocal Confidence.

While we entertain Hopes of enjoying a proportional Share of the Advantages to be derived from the Peace, we feel it our Duty, in a Corporate Capacity, to join our Acclamations to the general Voice, and express our Gratitude to the Author of so wise and beneficial a Measure. As individual Members of an University distinguished by signal Marks of Royal Favor, we will endeavour, as we trust we hitherto have endeavoured, to impress on the Minds of Youth committed to our Care, a due Sense of the Excellence of our Constitution in Church and State, and a Love for it, not founded so much on the uninformed Prejudices of Birth, as the mature Convictions of Reason. So may we hope, that those who quit our Academical Studies for a public Life, may turn to practical Use the speculative Lessons which they have been taught; and that we, by a faithful Discharge of our important Trust, may secure to ourselves the Continuance of your Majesty's Protection.

We humbly take our Leave, after expressing in our own, the general Wish, that your Majesty may long reign over a free, a loyal, and an united People.

Given at our Senate, this Seventeenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and two.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your Congratulations on the Success of my Endeavours to restore the public Peace.

This fresh Instance of your uniform Attachment to my Person and Government, and the Assurances you give me of continuing your laudable Exertions to inculcate and establish in the Minds of those committed to your Charge the Principles of sound Learning and true Religion, with a just Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under our most excellent Constitution, are highly satisfactory to me, and cannot fail to secure to my University of Cambridge, the Continuance of my Protection and Favour.

Whitehall, May 29, 1802.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Francis Lord Napier, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious Letter with which your Majesty hath honoured this Meeting of our National Assembly, hath been received by us with all the Respect and Gratitude due for such a Mark of Royal Favour.

The Approbation which your Majesty is pleased to express of the General Assemblies of the Church of Scotland we feel as an animating Motive to persevere in the Conduct which procures for us the Sanction of your Royal Authority.

The Appointment of the Right Honorable Francis Lord Napier to represent your Royal Person in this General Assembly we regard as a fresh Proof of your Majesty's Favour:—His Zeal for you, Majesty's Service, his Affection for the Church of Scotland, and his firm Attachment to the true Interests of his Country, ensure to him the most respectful and cordial Reception.

We rely with Gratitude and Confidence upon the Assurance that it is your Majesty's fixed Purpose and Resolution to support the Church which we represent in the full Possession and Enjoyment of all its Rights and Privileges as by Law established.

We feel most deeply the Importance of your Majesty's paternal Warning, that the Prosperity of our Church will ever essentially depend upon the due Discharge of the Duties incumbent upon all the Members of it in their several Ranks and Stations: and we shall not cease to pray, that we may be enabled, through the Divine Blessing, by a zealous and prudent Exertion of the Influence belonging to our sacred Function to promote the Accomplishment of an Object so desirable.

At this Moment in particular, whilst we endeavour to impress upon the Minds of the People committed to our Charge a due Sense of Gratitude to that Divine Providence which has enabled your Majesty to put an End to a long and arduous War, and to restore to them the Blessings of Peace, we shall not fail to remind them that nothing but a strict Obedience to the Will of God, a firm Adherence to our reformed Faith, a disinterested Love of their Country, and Submission to its Laws, can give these Blessings Permanence and Stability.

We bless the King of Kings that we live under the Government of a Prince who recommends to our Attention Objects so worthy of all our Care, whose ready Concurrence will support, and whose high Approbation will reward, every Exertion to promote them.

We receive with much Gratitude the Royal Donation of One Thousand Pounds for promoting the Knowledge of the Protestant Religion in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland: we shall apply it with Fidelity and Diligence to the pious and important Purpose for which it is given.

That Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, may preserve your Majesty's Person and direct your Councils; that He may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that He may continue to us the many National Blessings in which your Subjects now rejoice; and that, after enjoying long the Affection of a loyal and grateful People, you may receive a heavenly Crown, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Finlayson, Moderator.
Edinburgh, 22d May 1802.

May it please your Majesty,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, beg Leave to approach the Throne of our gracious Sovereign with every Sentiment of warm Affection and profound Respect to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Issue which God, in his Providence, hath given to a bloody, extended, and expensive War, by restoring to Europe the Blessings of Peace.

When we consider the singular Nature of the late War, which threatened in its Progress the Subversion of social Order, and of every political Establishment in the civilized World, we offer up the devout Homage of grateful Hearts to the Sovereign of the Universe, who, by his Blessing on the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, on the splendid Achievements of your Fleets and Armies, on the steady, affectionate, and zealous Loyalty of your People, not only hath maintained our Independence as a Nation, but, from the Furnace of War, hath brought us forth a People increasing in our Numbers, united in our Strength, growing in Prosperity, attached with warmer Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and animated by a steadier Zeal in Support of our unrivalled Constitution both in Church and State.

The Church which we represent has uniformly experienced, and we gratefully acknowledge the benign Influence of your Majesty's auspicious Reign. We bless the God of Heaven for having given us a King whose public and private Virtues adorn the most exalted State of human Greatness: we renew the Declarations of former Assemblies, that, in the faithful Discharge of our Duty, we will continue to cultivate in the Minds of the People that Reverence of God and Zeal for revealed Religion, that Loyalty to our Sovereign and Attachment to the Constitution, those Habits of persevering Industry and of domestic Virtue which have stamped upon Britons a National Character that is the Glory of our Country, and the Admiration of the World.

As the Servants of the God of Peace, we have, with deep Commiseration of afflicted Humanity, contemplated the Workings of that Spirit of Insubordination which has convulsed the World; and in Review of the late eventful Contest we find, highly endeared to our affectionate Veneration, a Sovereign who is the Father of his Subjects, and the watchful Guardian of a Constitution which, built upon the permanent Foundation of Religion and Liberty, shall, we trust, be preserved through Ages a sacred Pledge of the protecting Care of Heaven, a majestic Monument of the Wisdom of our Ancestors, by whose enlightened Patriotism it was reared, an illustrious Trophy to the Valor of our Contemporaries, by whom it has been so bravely defended, and a Blessing to the succeeding Race of Britons, who, we hope, shall receive it unimpaired as the rich Inheritance of their Fathers.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may prolong your Majesty's Life, and prosper your Administration; that he may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all your Royal Family; and that, after an useful and happy Reign on Earth, you may obtain a Crown of Glory, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most obedient Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Finlayson, Moderator.
 Edinburgh, 22d May 1802.

St. James's, May 26, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty:

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, beg Leave humbly to request your Majesty's gracious Acceptance of our most hearty Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace. At the same Time we earnestly beseech your Majesty to be assured of the Loyalty, Affection, and Veneration of the City of Oxford for your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; and that we will never cease to pray that the Almighty will long preserve to us the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Francis Burton and Henry Peters, Esqrs.
Members of Parliament for the City of Oxford]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Bailiffs, Citizens, Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Lichfield.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Citizens, Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Lichfield, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Expressions of our sincere Congratulations upon the Termination of the wide, extended, and expensive War in which we have been for Nine Years engaged, and which has been brought to a happy Conclusion by the wise, strenuous, and beneficent Exertions of your Majesty's Councils; and we pray that, through your Majesty's paternal Care, and the Vigilance and Moderation of your Majesty's Administration, this united Kingdom may continue to enjoy the Blessings, and to cultivate the Arts of Peace; and that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, united, and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude for the Blessings of Peace restored to your People; and we trust that, under your Majesty's paternal Care, these Blessings will be improved for the Security of your Majesty's Crown, and for promoting the Prosperity and Happiness of your Subjects.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and grateful People, and may transmit to your own and your Subjects' latest Posterity the happy Effects of your mild and auspicious Government, is our most fervent Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Common Seal of the City of Glasgow, in Presence, by Appointment, and in Name of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the said City, in Council assembled at Glasgow, the Fifteenth Day of May Eighteen hundred and two Years.

John Hamilton, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Culrois, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble but heartfelt Tribute of Gratulation and Thankfulness, upon the happy Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, whereby your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Goodness have finally terminated the burdensome and expensive War, in which not only these Realms, but all other Parts of the civilized World have been so long involved.

That the salutary Spirit of Peace may continue to pervade and inspire your Councils, that Industry and (under your Royal Auspices and Example,) the due and meritorious Cultivation of all the Arts which tend to benefit or adorn Humanity may ever distinguish the Character, and constitute the peculiar Felicity of your Subjects, and that your Majesty may long reign in Happiness over a free, a loyal, and an united People, is our earnest and ardent Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Borough of Dumfries, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to offer you our most sincere Congratulations on the Return of Peace; the long and arduous Contest in which this Country was engaged, hath, by the Blessing of God upon your Majesty's Councils and Arms, been brought to an happy and honorable Termination; the Constitution and Independence of the Kingdom, for which we were contending, remain firm and unimpaired, and we anticipate in pleasing Hope, the increasing Happiness and Prosperity of your Subjects, under the auspicious Reign of a Monarch, who is no less the Patron of the Arts of Peace than the Guardian of his People amidst the Storms of War; and it is our fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may be long preserved to enjoy every Blessing that can flow from the Gratitude and Attachment of a free and happy People.

Subscribed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at the Council Chamber of Dumfries, this Eighteenth May One thousand eight hundred and two, by Robert Jackson, Provost.
[Presented by Lord Pelham, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your ancient Borough of Inverkeithing, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble but heartfelt Tribute of Gratulation and Thankfulness, upon the happy Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, whereby your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Goodness have finally terminated the burdensome and expensive War, in which not only these Realms, but all other Parts of the civilized World have been so long involved.

That the salutary Spirit of Peace may continue to pervade and inspire your Councils, that Industry and (under your Royal Auspices and Example) the due and meritorious Cultivation of all the Arts which tend to benefit or adorn Humanity, may ever distinguish the Character, and constitute the peculiar Felicity of your Subjects, and that your Majesty may long reign in Happiness over a free, a loyal, and an united People is our earnest and ardent Prayer.

John Henderson, Provost.

[Presented by Lord Pelham, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Jurats, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Seaford, at a Court of Assembly, holden at the Town-Hall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Jurats, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Seaford, being impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude, for your Majesty's parental Attention to the Interests of your People, desire to approach your Majesty with our sincere Thanks for the Restoration of the inestimable Blessings of Peace, which your Majesty has so happily effected.

To terminate the Calamities which afflicted a large Portion of the Globe, to stop the Effusion of human Blood, and to ease the Burthens attending a long and expensive War, were Objects truly worthy of your Majesty's earnest Solitude, and were ardently desired by all your Majesty's People.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and may your Majesty long reign the revered Sovereign of a united and happy People.

Thos. Harben, Bailiff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and John Leach, Esq; Recorder of Seaford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Kent, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty to express our Thanks and Congratulations on the Success which has attended your Majesty's Endeavours to procure for your dutiful and loyal Subjects the Blessings of Peace.

We beg to assure your Majesty that we shall ever adhere to those Principles which actuated us zealously to stand forward in the Hour of Danger to maintain a Constitution, the superior Advantages of which, the united Experience of our Ancestors and ourselves confirms to our judgments, and impresses upon our Hearts; and to defend a Sovereign, towards whom our Attachment to that happy Constitution, and his personal Character and Conduct, equally claim our Duty, our Respect, and our Love.

We rejoice at the Event of a Peace by which our native Rights, and our invaluable Constitution are continued to us unimpaired.

Should either the unlicensed Ambition of a foreign, or the mad Treachery of a domestic Enemy, attempt to attack or undermine those Blessings which we have struggled to maintain in War, and which we rejoice to see secured by Peace, our Duty and our Inclinations will equally excite us to exert our united and vigorous Efforts to give effectual Support to our King, our Country, our Laws, and our Religion.

Signed by the Desire, and in the Name of the County of Kent. Thomas Godfrey, Sheriff. Maidstone, 24th May 1802.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Queensferry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Borough of Queensferry, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with our humble but heartfelt Tribute of Gratulation and Thankfulness upon the happy Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, whereby your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Goodness have put a Period to the burdensome and expensive War, in which, not only these Realms, but almost all other Parts of the civilized World have been so long involved.

That the salutary Spirit of Peace may continue to pervade and inspire your Councils; that Industry, and (under your Royal Auspices and Example,) the due and meritorious Cultivation of all the Arts which tend to benefit or adorn Humanity, may ever distinguish the Character, and constitute the peculiar Felicity of your Subjects, and that your Majesty may long reign in Happiness over a free, a loyal, and an united People, is our earnest and ardent Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Queensferry, this Eighth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two Years. The Seal of the Burgh being also hereunto affixed.

NOTICE TO MARINERS, from the Danish Royal Council of Customs and of the Indies, dated Copenhagen, 6th April 1802.

His Majesty having been pleased to order that there shall be a Watch Light on the Northern Coast of Bornholm, to guide the Navigators of the Baltic, we give Notice, That Examination having been made of the most convenient Place from whence the Light might be most distinctly seen, as well by those who come from the West as by those who come from the East and the North, and who wish to pass between Bornholm and the Coast of Sweden, a Light-House has been constructed on the Mountain called Steileberg, which is situated, by the Compass, about a Quarter of a Mile from the Northernmost Bay of Bornholm. In consequence of the Height of this Mountain, this Light-House will be 272 Feet above the Level of the Water. Although it is lighted by Means of a Coal Fire, it is surrounded by a Glass Case or Lanthorn of 14 Feet Diameter, constructed upon a New Principle, so that, in all Weathers, the Flame will rise without Interruption, and the Light will be augmented by it, because that Part of the Case or Lanthorn which is on the Land Side, and every Part from whence the Light cannot be seen at Sea, is a Wall, the Interior of which is covered with Plates of polished Black-Tin

This Light-House will be lighted up for the first Time, on the 21st June 1802, and afterwards it will be continued according to the Terms of the Ordinance of the 21st March 1705, and of the Proclamation of the 1st February 1799, so that in Summer, that is from Easter-Day to Michaelmas Day, it will be kept burning from an Hour after Sunset till Sunrise, and in Winter, that is, from Michaelmas Day to Easter-Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset till Sunrise.

Done at Copenhagen, at the Royal Council of Customs and of the Indies, the 6th April 1802.

THE SEAL

ON THE BOXES.

To MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS of SHIPS,
 &c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN,

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeit:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglish, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved, in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLISH.

Creditors of Captain JAMES FOOT.

ALL Persons having Claims or Demands upon the Estate of James Foot, late Master of the Ship Maria, in the Jamaica Trade, deceased, are requested immediately to send an attested Account thereof to Mr. Benjamin Lane, No. 4, Birchin-Lane, Cornhill, in order to make a Dividend of his Effects.

TO ALL PEACE OFFICERS.

Warminster, May 21, 1802.

Whereas on Yesterday, being the 20th Day of May 1802, between the Hours of One and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Servant of Mr. Robert Baileys, of Calstone-Mills, in the County of Wilts, driving his Master's Cart with Two Horses from Warminster, was overtaken or met at or near a Place called South Down Farm, by Five Men (at present unknown,) disguised, with their Faces blacked, who took from the Cart divers Quantities of Cloth, the Property of Thomas Aldridge, Peter Warren, and Messrs. John Bleeck and George Strode, all of Warminster aforesaid, Clothiers, and cut, damaged, and spoiled the same, I hereby give you Notice of such Felony as you may do your Duty herein.

NATH. DAVIES, Lothbury, Agent for MATTHEW DAVIES, Solicitor, Warminster.

To the Creditors of JOHN THOMAS, of Sloane-Street, Ironmonger.

Whereas the above-named John Thomas hath lately taken the Benefit of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 41st Year of His present Majesty's Reign intitled an Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors, and hath been discharged under the same, having first given in and delivered upon Oath a Schedule of his real and personal Estate; and whereas a Meeting for the Purpose of choosing one or more Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of the said John Thomas was duly convened, by public Notice in the London Gazette, for this Day, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Baptist-Head Coffee-House, Chancery-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, but only one Creditor having attended in pursuance thereof, Notice is hereby given, that an adjourned Meeting of the said Creditors, who have proved their Debts, will be held at the Baptist-Head Coffee-House aforesaid, on Friday the 4th Day of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, for the above-mentioned Purpose.

N. B. No Person will be allowed to vote at this Meeting who has not previously proved his Debt. And all Persons indebted to the said John Thomas, prior to his aforesaid Discharge, or who have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same to any Person but the Assignee or Assignees, who may be chosen at such Meeting, but give Notice to Mr. William Stevens, Solicitor, No. 19, Featherstone-Buildings, Holborn.

N. B. Any Person concealing or neglecting to discover any Property of the said John Thomas prior to his Discharge, incur a Penalty of One Hundred Pounds.

Notice to the Creditors of the deceased Robert Alburn, Merchant, in London.

Edinburgh, May 25, 1802.

ROBERT ALLAN, Accountant, in Edinburgh, the Trustee for said Creditors, hereby intimates to all concerned, that he is to make a Final Dividend of the Trust Funds in Scotland, upon Tuesday the 29th of June next, after which Day the Dividends will be paid by him to the Creditors, or their Doers, specially authorised to discharge the same, and to ratify the Proceedings under the Trust; and as there is Reason to believe that some of Mr. Alburn's Creditors have not yet claimed, Intimation is hereby made to such Creditors, that unless they shall lodge their Claims, with Oaths of Verity thereon, with the Trustee, betwixt and the 20th Day of June next, they will be excluded from any Share on the Fund to be divided.

St. James's, May 31, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace.

Whilst we contemplate, with Pleasure and Satisfaction, the Exertions of all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects in the long and arduous Contest in which your Majesty has been engaged, we cannot but be sensible that, to the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and the unexampled Valor of your Majesty's Forces both by Sea and Land, we are (under Providence) indebted for the present happy Termination of the Miseries of War.

Permit us, at the same Time, to assure your Majesty, that, great as our Exertions have hitherto been, they will be repeated with unabated Spirit and Perseverance whenever they may be necessary for the Support of the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Security and Independence of your Dominions.

May the Almighty continue to your Majesty and your Dominions the Blessings of Peace; and may your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous over a loyal, grateful, and happy People.

Signed in the Name, and on Behalf of a General Meeting of the County,

A. Bayntun, Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir Andrew Bayntun, High Sheriff, attended by H. P. Wyndham, Joshua Smith, and M. Hicker Beach, Esqrs.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of your Borough and Parish of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our Congratulations on the happy Event of the Restoration of Peace. Allow us, Sire, humbly to express our Hopes that we shall long continue to receive the Benefit of a Blessing which so materially adds to the Happiness of our Fellow Subjects, and the Welfare of our Country.

Given under the Seal of Incorporation of the said Borough and Parish this Twenty-fifth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Thomas Copner, Mayor.

[Presented by John Cleveland, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

St. James's, May 31, 1802.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Westbury, in the County of Wilts, humbly present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace: A Blessing we consider so highly estimable, that our Sense of Duty will irresistibly impel us, on the approaching Occasion, to join your Majesty, and our Fellow Subjects, in offering to the Almighty the Sacrifice of Thanksgiving for the same.

We shall be happy likewise, on every Opportunity, to demonstrate the high Sense we entertain of the meritorious Services of your Majesty's Army and Navy, by Means of which the Event we so joyfully hail, has been accomplished.

Whilst with heartfelt Satisfaction we have observed, during the late arduous Conflict, the most loyal and affectionate Attachment in all Ranks of People to your Majesty's Person and Government, we were, at the same Time, and still are convinced, that to your Majesty's unceasing Care and Regard for the Welfare of your Subjects that Attachment must be ascribed; and we are fully assured, that on the continued Exercise of those paternal Attentions your faithful Subjects may at all Times confidently rely.

Impressed with these Sentiments we shall therefore always feel it our Duty and Interest to pray for your Majesty's Health, and that under the Auspices of your Majesty's Virtues, the Councils of this Realm may long continue to be directed.

Daniel Vine, Mayor.

St. James's, June 2, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common-Council assembled, most humbly present your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace to your United Dominions, and the several Estates of Europe.

When compelled to the Defence of our dearest Interests by the destructive Rage of impious Ambition, we acknowledge the experienced Efficacy of your Majesty's Counsels (under Divine Providence) in maintaining our Safety from the manifold Dangers of domestic Conspiracy and foreign Invasion.

Through the gracious Dispensations vouchsafed to this Kingdom, we have not been destined, with other contending Powers, to the fatal Extremities of War, but remain to rejoice in the envied Possession of an unrivalled Constitution, the Purity of our Holy Religion, and the Advancement of National Glory, obtained by unparalleled Achievements.

Long may your Majesty abide in continual Peace and Tranquillity, the zealous Guardian of our distinguished Blessings; and may your devoted and affectionate People give Testimony of their peculiar Happiness by due Observance of their social Duties, by steadfast Fidelity and grateful Obedience.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City this Eighteenth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Sir William Watson, Mayor, Earl Camden, Recorder, Lord John Thynne, and Mr. Palmer, Members for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Gloucester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Gloucester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most grateful Acknowledgments for your Majesty's paternal Goodness in restoring to the British Empire the Blessings of Peace.

While we admire the Wisdom of our Ancestors, and the Perfection of that Constitution, which gives to your Majesty the Prerogative to determine on the Events of Peace and War, we exult in expressing the most lively Satisfaction in your Majesty's judicious Use of it on this happy and important Occasion.

Amidst the general Wreck of Empires we have seen this favoured Land rise superior to the Storm, our Commerce increased, our Naval and Military Glory blazing forth with additional Lustre, and the Integrity of your Majesty's Dominions fully maintained.

In contemplating these important Effects, which, under Providence, we owe to the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, and to the Fortitude which has been displayed by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, we doubt not that your Majesty's sacred Person, and our unrivalled Constitution, will ever be defended with the same Spirit and Perseverance which has brought this arduous Conflict to so happy a Conclusion.

Taught by Experience the fatal Effects of defying Laws and contemning Sanctuaries, we are persuaded that, by a dutiful Submission to the one, and by an uniform Reverence for the other, we shall ensure to ourselves the most effectual Means of enjoying and perpetuating the Blessings of Peace.

That your Majesty may long live the Guardian and Protector of a free and united People is our ardent Wish and our fervent Prayer.

[Presented by Henry Howard, Esq; M. P. for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne to express our sincere and heartfelt Gratitude on the Termination of the Horrors of War, and the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace to your Majesty's Empire.

We most earnestly pray that the Wisdom and Talents of your Majesty's Councils, and the Zeal, Skill, and Valour which directed the late Military Operations, may, under Divine Providence, effectually combine to render your Majesty's Power respected and revered by all Nations; and have the happy Effect of continuing to your Majesty's Subjects the Blessings of social Order and Peace, now so happily restored to Europe.

We beg to embrace this Opportunity of expressing our unalterable Attachment to our most excellent Constitution, and our zealous and ardent Wish for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign.

In Testimony of the above, we, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed this Twenty-ninth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Mr. Jefferys, M. P. for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your antient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common-Council assembled, are happy in the Opportunity of approaching your Majesty's Throne on this Occasion, and of joining in the universal Joy diffused over your Dominions at the Conclusion of a long and expensive War, and the Restoration of Peace.

We have admired with Gratitude the wise Selection of your Commanders both by Sea and Land, the great and glorious Exertions of your Fleets and Armies, which have brought about this happy Event, and which, we hope, will be signalized by the Prosperity of our National Commerce, and crowned with the Overflowings of Plenty.

We are very thankful for the Preservation of our civil and religious Liberties; and join in our hearty Prayers to the great Disposer of all Events, that this Peace, so long wished for, may be solid and permanent, that your Majesty may experience the Blessing of good Health, and many Years to enjoy it, and your Reign continue long and glorious over a free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-seventh Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Chief Steward, and Major Symonds, M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, to approach your Royal Presence with our sincere and ardent Congratulations on the Termination of a most dangerous and bloody Warfare, and the happy Return of the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

Already, Sir, do we feel the Benefits attached to this most desirable Event; we have seen that (under Providence) Plenty has attended on the Steps of Peace; our Commerce, we trust, will increase more and more, our Manufactures flourish, and, under your Majesty's auspicious Patronage, the useful Arts will revive and be encouraged.

To your Majesty's paternal Care and Anxiety for the Welfare of your faithful Subjects do we owe this happy Change. Accept, most gracious Sovereign, our warmest Acknowledgments for it; and may the God of Peace continue long to protect and preserve your Majesty to the anxious Wishes and Prayers of a loyal, grateful, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Tolsey, in the said City, the Eighteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Samuel Woodcock, Esq; Mayor, His Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Recorder, Sir Edward Jeynes, Knt. Alderman, John Wilton, Esq; Sheriff, and Henry Howard, Esq; M. P.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Wells, beg Leave to lay at your Majesty's Feet our most respectful Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions; and we most sincerely pray for the long Continuance of a Blessing which we are persuaded it is the first Wish of your Majesty's Heart to preserve to your faithful Subjects.

But should the Tranquillity which we now enjoy be ever again disturbed by any unprovoked Aggression from whatever Quarter, the just and deep Sense of Gratitude which we feel for the Benefits which we derive from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government will re-animate that Energy, Resolution, and unshaken Constancy in Defence of the just Rights and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown which has been so recently displayed: and we fully trust that the Exertions of a zealous and faithful People will ever, under Divine Providence, effectually maintain the ancient Honor of your Majesty's Kingdoms against the Ambition of any foreign Foe, and protect that glorious and invaluable Constitution, under which we have so long flourished, against the restless Machinations of any domestic Enemies.

We most humbly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts, and over the Persons of a loyal and affectionate People.

[Presented by Mr. Tudway, Admiral Holloway, &c.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of the most sincere and inviolable Reverence and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to express our humble Congratulations on the general Re-establishment of Peace in your Majesty's Dominions, and in Europe.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that your loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of this ancient City, have cheerfully sustained those Burthens which we found necessary for the Support of your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and the dearest Interests of the Empire, through the long, arduous, and expensive Contest into which your Majesty was reluctantly driven.—We are most sensible of the great Difficulties with which your Majesty has had to encounter during a War, which was directed by the Enemy against every Principle both Divine and Human, that was pointed against every Tie that binds Men together in Society, and menaced the whole civilized World with Anarchy and Confusion.—We cannot sufficiently express our Gratitude to your Majesty for the Wisdom and Firmness of those Councils, by which a War of such unexampled Danger and Difficulty has been conducted to a happy Conclusion, and to which, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, we ascribe the unimpaired Preservation of the Constitution, the Safety of the established Religion, and the Security of the Laws, Liberties, and Properties of your faithful Subjects.—And we trust that, as the Successes of the War have raised the Character of the British Arms, both by Sea and Land, to an unexampled Pitch of Glory, that the Peace which your Majesty's parental Regard to the Welfare of your People has led you to conclude, will be equally productive of the happiest Consequences to the Commerce and Manufactures of the Empire, and to the confirmed and permanent Establishment of Order, Regularity, and general Satisfaction through every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

Given under the Common Seal of the City of Winchester the Twenty-eighth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, have received, with Sentiments of unfeigned Satisfaction, the happy Account of the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace between your Majesty and the Allied Powers of France, Spain, and Holland.

We beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on this joyous Occasion; and we most earnestly pray that the Peace, so necessary to the Prosperity of the United Kingdom, may, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, be rendered permanent; and that your Majesty may long reign in Health and Happiness over a loyal, free, and flourishing People.

Signed at the Request and on Behalf of the Meeting, the Twelfth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Charles William Bigge, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Presented by Mr. Bigge, Sheriff of the County.]

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of the truest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Solitude in giving Peace to your People.

Aided by the Valour and Skill of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, by the Wisdom and Prudence of your Councils, and by the united Energies of brave and loyal Subjects, the War has been terminated, and our Religion, Liberty, and Laws preserved. These invaluable Blessings are, under Divine Providence, secured to us, and your Majesty's extensive Dominions not only maintained in their Integrity but even augmented.

We observe, with Admiration, the high Degree of Confidence reposed in the Resources of the Empire, so unequivocally displayed by the Support of public Credit.

We anticipate the numerous Advantages of an extensive Commerce, combined with domestic Economy, in the confident Expectation of Prosperity and Plenty, and the Diffusion of public and private Happiness.

We begin to feel the Blessings of Peace, and we hope and trust it may not be interrupted. But it, contrary to these just Expectations, we should be disappointed, we pledge ourselves to support your Majesty's Exertions whenever Circumstances may render them necessary; trusting, however, that by a due Mixture of Conciliation with Precaution, by a Firmness in Preparation, united with a Readiness to act upon any unexpected Emergency, the Peace which is now restored may prove lasting and secure.

May it be permitted us, in a peculiar Manner, to participate in the benign Sentiments which this auspicious Event has inspired, and to wish your Majesty many Years of a peaceful and happy Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, humbly beg to congratulate your Majesty on the joyful Return of Peace.

We have witnessed, with heartfelt Satisfaction, the unremitting Exertions displayed by every Class of your Majesty's Subjects during the arduous Contest in which this Country has been so long engaged; and we are conscious that, to the unexampled Valour of your Majesty's Naval and Military Forces, we are, under Divine Providence, indebted for a Restoration of the Blessings of Peace.

Permit us to repeat the Declaration (which it is at all Times gratifying to us to express) of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and of our inviolable Attachment to the Constitution, which it has been our chief Object to preserve.

We most solemnly assure your Majesty, that, constant as the Exertions, and great as the Sacristances have been which we have made during the late War, we shall be ready to renew them with undiminished Ardour should your Majesty, at any future Period, deem it necessary to assert, by Arms, the Independence and Honor of the United Empire.

We flatter ourselves that such an Event is far distant; it is our earnest Prayer that every Part of your Majesty's extensive Dominions may, without Interruption, enjoy the Blessings of Peace; and that your Majesty may long and prosperously reign to witness the Affections of a grateful and loyal People.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerset.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects most humbly beg Leave to lay at your Majesty's Feet our unfeigned Congratulations, as well as the deep Sense we shall ever entertain of your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness to your People, in having put an End to the Calamities of War, and restored to them the Blessings of Peace; and although we shall be at all Times prepared to defend your Majesty's Crown and Dignity against all Invaders, whether Domestic or Foreign, yet, we supplicate and trust the All-ruling Providence will so direct your Majesty's Councils as to avert from us any Return of those Evils we have so long undergone; and that the same Divine Power will be pleased to continue to your Majesty a long and happy Reign over a free and loyal Nation.

SIRE!

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, beg Leave to convey to your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our loyal and affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government, and to unite in one general Sentiment of sincere Congratulation to your Majesty on the Restoration of the Blessing of Peace.

The Termination of the arduous Contest in which this Nation has been lately engaged, excites in us the most lively Gratitude to that Divine Being, under whose Providence your Majesty's Throne has been protected, and the civil and religious Liberties of your People effectually secured.

Whilst we lament the Calamities inseparably attendant on War, we feel a Pride as Britons in reflecting on the numerous and unexampled Proofs of Heroism which have been shewn by your Majesty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, during the late Conflict, and on that steady Attachment to the Constitution which has been manifested by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects; conveying a Lesson to surrounding Nations, and likewise to Posterity, that Establishments of Religion and social Order, protected by the Exertions of a free and independent People, are invulnerable.

Truly sensible of your Majesty's paternal and affectionate Regard for your People, we pray the Almighty that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united Nation.

Signed on the Behalf of and with the unanimous Consent of the Meeting,

John Davie, Sheriff.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton.

VOUCHSAFE, most gracious Sovereign, to permit the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, to approach your Majesty with every Mark of Loyalty and Affection for the best of Kings, the Monarch of his People's utmost Wish.

While we, with Pride, contemplate the great Events which signalize your Majesty's Reign, tending to promote the Happiness of your Subjects, and to increase the National Importance by holding forth an illustrious Example of princely Virtues for the Imitation of distant Potentates, we are anxious to add the personal Endowments which dignify the Heart, and form your Majesty's exalted Character—Claims such as these, so widely known, so much admired, cannot fail to transmit your Royal Name to Posterity with unrivalled Honor when contrasted by the delusive Conduct of temporizing Allies! Deserted by such, we saw with Indignation the arduous Task of protecting oppressed Nations fall on your Majesty alone; and on your Majesty alone depended the awful Choice of Peace or War! Happily, for a weary World, you sacrificed the poignant Feelings of most just and honorable Repentment of unprovoked Injuries and Wrongs to the Restoration of Peace, with its appendant Train of Blessings, arresting the Arm of Violence, and sheathing the Sword fated with the Blood of Millions! Long may these Blessings last, and yield to your Majesty the rich Reward of Gratitude!

Permit us, Sire, to make an easy Transition from this interesting Subject to a recent Measure nearly connected with it; and to observe, that in the Register of your memorable Acts as Sovereign of these Realms, your Majesty's paternal Care, and the Wisdom of your Councils, were most conspicuous in the Accomplishment of the Union with our Sister Kingdom; by thus drawing nearer to your Royal Brethren your brave and loyal Subjects of Ireland you add a Wreath of Honor to your Crown, and of Two Nations, jealous for their respective Privileges, form one Imperial State, and harmonize the Whole by an indiscriminate Participation in the Advantages of our excellent Constitution!

May the Almighty, by whose peculiar Favour this Country has been preserved from the accumulated Horrors of War, which stained the Face of Nature, and threatened to depopulate Half the Globe, grant to your Majesty Length of Days, and prosper your renewed Ardour to advance the liberal Arts, to cheer the Labour of the Husbandman, encourage the Skill of the Artificer, raise the dejected Head of Commerce, and bid it spread its benignant Influence to the remotest Climes! And may all your Majesty's Subjects know how to value and defend our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and with one exulting Voice resound God save our King!

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Beverley.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of Beverley, impressed with the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace, which, from the Wisdom and Energy that distinguished your Majesty's Councils during the arduous Contest in which we have been engaged, we confidently trust, has been concluded on such fair and honorable Terms, that it cannot fail permanently to secure the Safety, Honour, and Welfare of our Sovereign and his Dominions.

Confiding in your Majesty's unwearied Attention to the true Interests of your Subjects, we entertain the most sanguine Hope, that under the Protection of their beloved Monarch, your faithful People will cherish and cultivate the Arts of Peace, with no less Zeal and Energy than they evinced, when compelled to take up Arms in Defence of the invaluable Constitution under which we live, and which hath so long been the Envy and Admiration of the World.

Be assured, Gracious Sire, that when we offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the Blessings of Peace, we most ardently pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and affectionate People.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Stirling, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace.

We contemplate this great Object as another Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care, and we flatter ourselves that the illustrious Example of Magnanimity and Moderation, which your Majesty has displayed at the Moment when Providence was pleased to crown your Arms with complete Success, will have the happy Effect of securing the Confidence of other Nations.

We cheerfully embrace this Opportunity of repeating our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and our sincere Wishes that your Majesty may be long spared for a Blessing not only to these Lands, but to the whole civilized World.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions.

In that Return we see a strong Display of those paternal Feelings for your People which have so eminently dignified your Majesty's Reign, and reflected a glorious Radiance on the Splendor of the Throne.

We are sensible of the Unimportance of our trivial Tribute of Gratitude and Loyalty amid the numerous public Testimonies which have been offered to your Majesty on this happy Event, but we cannot be silent on such an auspicious Occasion.

May your Majesty long live in the Enjoyment of the Blessings of Peace, and in the Exercise of those national and domestic Virtues which have ever shone conspicuous in your Majesty's Character; and may this United Kingdom enjoy that perfect and unalloyed Tranquillity which your Majesty's mild and parental Government must always inspire in the Bosom of every true Briton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Dunfermline, beg Leave humbly to offer your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the happy Event of the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, after a Contest of unexampled Ardour and Difficulty, in which the Valour of your Majesty's Forces both by Sea and Land shone forth with signal Lustre.

Amidst such Variety of Difficulties and Dangers it affords us just Grounds of Rejoicing, that the Constitution of this Country has been preserved in Defiance of all open or secret Enemies; and it is our sincere Prayer that it may long continue to prosper under your Majesty's paternal Care, and afterwards descend unimpaired to Posterity.

While the Trade and Manufactures of the surrounding Nations have been ruined by the wild Spirit of Anarchy, it is with singular Satisfaction that we view the Commerce of Great Britain flourishing and increasing, and her Resources still adequate for maintaining the National Honor and Independence.

Although it is our earnest Desire that Peace may be of long Duration, yet we have a firm Reliance on the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils in preserving the Dignity and Integrity of the British Empire.

May it please your most gracious Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chief Magistrate and Town-Council of your Borough of Queensferry, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with our most dutiful Thanks to your Majesty for restoring to us the Blessings of Peace.

We cannot fail to recollect the unavoidable Necessity of the War thus terminated, as well as the Firmness with which your Majesty and your Councils have vindicated the Honor of the Nation in the Course of the Contest.

We beg also to congratulate your Majesty on the Valour and Exertions of your Forces by Sea and Land; and feel the highest Pleasure in reflecting that our Representative in your Parliament has rendered useful Services as an Officer in your Majesty's Navy.

We also recollect, with the utmost Satisfaction, the humble but willing Aid which we rendered for the Protection of domestic Tranquillity and the Security of internal Defence, while the Exigencies of the Service called your regular Forces to a Distance; in a Spirit general among your Subjects, and which we consider as a sure Pledge for the Preservation of that Constitution which other Nations may imitate but cannot rival.

With the Restoration of Peace it has been the Will of Providence to send us Plenty, for which it is peculiarly incumbent upon us to be thankful, and, by a virtuous and sober Demeanour, to testify that we are not unworthy of the Blessings thus bestowed upon us.

That your Majesty may long sway the Sceptre of those Realms, for the Government of a free, happy, and dutiful People, is our most earnest Wish and Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Queensferry, this Twenty-second Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two Years. The Seal of the Burgh being also hereto affixed.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence with our most sincere Congratulations and Gratitude to your Majesty on restoring to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace.

In the Continuance of the late just and necessary War we express our Admiration of the Fortitude and Vigour with which your Majesty pursued every Measure that could contribute to the Glory and Security of your United Kingdom. We therefore entreat your Majesty graciously to permit us to say, that we are fully sensible of the many and great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and good Government; and, with the strongest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, we offer up our Prayers to God that your Majesty may long reign over a happy and free People.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most hearty and sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace. Sensible of the inestimable Blessings that will arise from so momentous an Event, we are emboldened to add our most ardent Hopes that your Majesty's most excellent Government may long remain flourishing under an auspicious Termination of a long and tedious War.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Scarborough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the most ardent and unshaken Sentiments of Loyalty, Gratitude, and Affection to your Majesty, we, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of Scarborough, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on the Termination of the Calamities of an afflictive War, and the auspicious Restoration of Tranquillity and Peace.

When we contemplate the arduous Contest in which the Nation has been engaged, and the unexampled Dangers to which our invaluable Constitution has been exposed, we are constrained to adore the Manifestations of Divine Providence, so conspicuously displayed in the Protection of our Fleets and Armies in the Day of Battle, in crowning with Success the native Courage and Ardour of our Seamen and Soldiers when opposed to numerous potent Enemies, and in preserving to us inviolate that excellent Constitution, the Basis of our Liberties, and the Bulwark of our civil Privileges.

While we gratefully acknowledge the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils in restoring to this and other Nations the Blessings of Peace, we ardently pray that the Tranquillity, Prosperity, and permanent Security of the Country may, under Providence, be maintained by unshaken Loyalty to the Sovereign, a sacred Reverence for the Laws, and a cordial and steady Attachment to that venerable System of Government, framed by the Wisdom of our Ancestors, which, we trust, will descend vigorous and unfulfilled to the latest Posterity.

Long, very long, Royal Sire, may the Almighty continue His especial Care over your sacred Person, and bless your Majesty with a peaceful and happy Reign over a free, loyal, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-eighth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the Conclusion of Peace.

We are sensible that this Town has derived considerable Advantages from the Fleets which have been assembled in our Roads for Foreign Expeditions, and for the Protection of our Coasts; yet we, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, heartily rejoice at the Termination of Hostilities: The Contest has been long and arduous; our Efforts, and those of our Allies, have not been able to prevent, upon the Continent, too great an Accession of Power to one Nation; but our invaluable Constitution has not been impaired, the Integrity of your Majesty's Dominions has been preserved, two valuable Islands have been acquired, and the Triumphs of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies have raised them to such a Height of Honor and Glory as, we trust, will deter any Nation, however powerful, from destroying that Tranquillity and Happiness which we hope long to enjoy under a King we love, and a Constitution we revere.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the Twenty-eighth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Callington, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to express to your Majesty the warmest Assurances of our Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Sensible of the Benefits which we derive from your Majesty's paternal Concern for the Welfare of your People, we approach the Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude and Thankfulness for the happy Success which hath attended your Majesty's Endeavours in the Restoration of Peace, at once honorable to the Crown, and advantageous to the Interests of the Empire.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and united People is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Callington.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the most sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace after a most expensive and widely extended War.

We acknowledge with Gratitude to the Almighty Governor of the Universe, the Blessings which this Country enjoys under the best of Sovereigns; we ascribe it, under Providence, to the Vigour of our excellent Constitution, directed by the enlightened Counsels of your Majesty's Government, that our Religion and Liberties have survived the almost general Wreck of surrounding Nations, involved in the late unexampled Conflict.

May Divine Providence so order the Hearts of Nations and their Rulers, that the Repose of the World may not again be interrupted by War, nor the Comforts of Society disturbed by internal Commotion.

We earnestly pray the Great Disposer of all Events, long to preserve your Majesty the Father of a loyal and united People, and that under the Auspices of your illustrious House, the Privileges, Civil and Religious, we now so happily enjoy, may be transmitted, unimpaired, to our latest Posterity.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of Newcastle upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the loyal Inhabitants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly offer our most sincere Congratulations on the Conclusion of a Treaty of Peace between your Majesty and the allied Powers of France, Spain, and Holland, by which the Independence of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is preserved, and the Number of our Colonies increased.

While the persevering Spirit of your loyal People during the late arduous Contest, may serve to convince the World, how firmly and truly attached we are to our King, our Country, and our Religion, remain assured, Gracious Sire, that the same Principles shall continue to prevail amongst us, and that the Safety of your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Preservation of our invaluable Constitution, shall ever be Objects of our utmost Care and Solitude; and that we shall ever feel grateful to Divine Providence for having maintained us in the Enjoyment of all these Blessings by the victorious Efforts of your Majesty's Naval and Military Forces, and for having brought us, by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, to this happy Period, when our Mariners, who, always without Fear, may now, without Opposition, traverse the Seas, when the Resources of our Industry and Genius may be encouraged and improved by a free Intercourse with other Nations, to the Glory of your Majesty's Reign, and Prosperity and Greatness of the United Kingdom.

Your loyal Subjects therefore earnestly pray, that long Life, Health, and Happiness may be the Reward of your Majesty's paternal Attention to their Welfare.

The most humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of your Majesty's Ancient Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, desire your Majesty's Permission to express our warmest Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for your tender Regard to the true Happiness and Welfare of your People in relieving them from the increasing Burthen of a long and expensive War, and procuring for them the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing in our Power shall be wanting that can contribute to give Happiness to your Majesty's Reign, which we pray may long, very long continue over a loyal and grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace.

We reflect with the utmost Satisfaction on the Exertions of your Majesty's Subjects on the long and arduous Contest on which they have been engaged for the Support of your Majesty's Dignity and their own Independence.

We cannot but acknowledge, that, under the Protection of Divine Providence, we owe our present Security to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the unexampled Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land. And permit us, Sire, to assure you, that however great our Exertions have been, and with whatever temporary Sacrifices attended to ourselves, they would be repeated with unabated Ardour and Perseverance should they again be found necessary to the Protection of your Majesty's Crown, or the Civil and Religious Privileges of your People.

We most earnestly pray, that the Great Disposer of Events will be pleased to prolong your Majesty's Reign and guard that Life which has been so justly endeared to us hitherto, by the Exercise of the most distinguished Virtues, and Maintenance of our National Prosperity, Freedom, and Happiness.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Councilmen of Liverpool, in special Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Councilmen of Liverpool, in special Council assembled, entreat your Majesty's Permission to address our Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

During a War of unusual Length, and of unexampled Difficulties, many are the Occasions on which we have participated in the National Exultation at Deeds of Military Valour and of Naval Heroism, such as History nowhere records. Those Victories were indeed productive of immediate and substantial Good; and whilst they tore from our Enemies their Colonies, and consolidated the Empire of the Seas, they have had, throughout this glorious Struggle, the Effect of animating the Spirit of the Nation, and giving Stability to public Order; but it is only now that they have attained their legitimate End, and been crowned with their best Reward, by the Re-establishment of general Tranquillity.

May that Tranquillity be permanent; and, in the full Enjoyment of it, may your Majesty long continue to reign over a free and united People, proud of their Country, and faithful to their King, active in Attention to the useful Arts, of which your Majesty has always been the Patron, and happy in the Practice of those Virtues of which your Majesty has always been the Example.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town and Corporation of Liverpool, this Twenty-first Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by F. Hargrave, Esq; Recorder of Liverpool.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, approach your Royal Presence with profound Respect to testify the Gratitude and Satisfaction which we feel on the Termination of the Calamities of War, and on the Restoration of Peace, not only to your Majesty's Dominions but to Europe in general.

We participate the Joy which your Majesty must have experienced on the present happy Occasion; and we are thankful for the Result of those Operations and Counsels which have produced Effects so interesting to our Country and the World.

We beg Leave to express our cordial Wishes that the Blessing of Peace may be uninterrupted; and that it may conduce to the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, to the Permanence of the British Constitution, and to the increasing Prosperity of every Part of the British Empire.

May your Majesty long enjoy the Satisfaction of witnessing the Union and Welfare of the Dominions over which you preside, and the Prevalence of true Religion and social Order, under the Influence of your salutary Counsels, through the various Nations of the Globe!

It is our earnest Wish that the Blessings which we possess under your Majesty's Administration may be preserved, by your Protection, to a distant Period, and transmitted with every Security and Increase of which they are capable to future Generations.

While it shall be our unremitting Endeavour to extend the Influence of the Gospel of Peace and Charity, both by our Instruction and Example, and thus to maintain the Attachment of those of your Majesty's Subjects with whom we are immediately connected to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, it will be our unfeigned and fervent Prayer that your valuable Life may be long continued; that when Providence removes you hence you may exchange an earthly for a celestial Crown; and that the Blessings which you have perpetuated may descend, in the illustrious Line of your Family, to the remotest Posterity.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, and to continue, for the same Period, an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorized, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, during the Continuance of the said Act, from Time to Time, when, and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, or under and subject to such Restrictions, Regulations, and Provisions as shall be specified by His said Majesty, in any Order in Council, the Exportation from any Part of Great Britain of any Articles of Provision; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition, either in Part or in the Whole, or to make any new Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions relating thereto, as Circumstances may require, any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from the Twelfth Day of this instant June, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel on its Voyage out and Home for the Sustenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustenance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively, in such Quantities as shall be judged to be necessary by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, upon Application to be made from Time to Time, and under Licences to be granted by their Lordships; or without such Licences, provided Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to Order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bonds, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out; and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are, or may hereafter be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit at any Time any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above-mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such, or the like Coast Sufferance, Coquet, or other Coast Dispatch for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same, as now is, or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of June 1802.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," (which Act, by subsequent Acts, has been further continued until Forty Days after the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament,) His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to order, (and it was thereby ordered,) that the Prohibition contained in an Order made by His Majesty in Council, on the Sixteenth Day of October One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, on the Exportation, or the loading or laying on board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof, should be, and continue in force until the Expiration of Forty Days after the Commencement of the First Session of Parliament that should be begun and holden after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and one: excepting, nevertheless, out of such Prohibitions, any foreign Corn, or Meal, or Flour, that should have been imported and Warehoused in the Manner, and under the Conditions mentioned in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty of foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and should not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, and with Exception also as to the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, from Great Britain, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act.

And whereas His Majesty was also pleased by his said Order in Council of the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to continue in like Manner, and for the like Term the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain, any foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatever; and also the Liberty to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption any such foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and likewise the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse, and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-Powder, Ta-pioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout; provided a due Entry should be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that should be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same should be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned :

And whereas, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to continue until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation of Provision, without Payment of Duty ;" and to continue for the same Period, " An Act of the last Session of Parliament for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn, or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty ;" the said Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the subsequent Acts continuing the same, are further continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three :

And whereas, His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to order that his said Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, should be continued in Force for and during the Space of Six Months from the Date hereof; and whereas the said last mentioned Order in Council will now shortly expire, and whereas it is expedient further to continue the same with such Alteration and Exception, as is hereinafter mentioned, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers so vested in His Majesty, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export Corn, or any of the Articles as aforesaid, and the said Permission to import and take out of Warehouse, foreign Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision, excepting only the Article of Rice, as expressed in the said Order, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, with every Exception, proviso, Rule, Regulation, and Restriction specified in the said Order respecting such Exportation, Importation, or taking out of Warehouse; and all Matters and Things in the said Orders contained, shall be and continue in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three; and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of June 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, and to continue, for the same Period, an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorised, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, during the Continuance of the said Act, from Time to Time, when, and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, or under and subject to such Restrictions, Regulations, and Provisions as shall be specified by His said Majesty, in any Order in Council, the Exportation from any Part of Great Britain of any Articles of Provision; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition, either in Part or in the Whole, or to make any new Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions relating thereto, as Circumstances may require, any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from the Twelfth Day of this instant June, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, no Person or Persons whosoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef,

Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel on its Voyage out and Home for the Sustenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustenance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively, in such Quantities as shall be judged to be necessary by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, upon Application to be made from Time to Time, and under Licences to be granted by their Lordships; or without such Licences, provided Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to Order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bonds, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out; and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are, or may hereafter be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit at any Time any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above-mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such, or the like Coast Suffrance, Coquet, or other Coast Dispatch for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same, as now is, or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Farwaker.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of June 1802.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," (which Act, by subsequent Acts, has been further continued until Forty Days after the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament,) His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to order, (and it was thereby ordered,) that the Prohibition contained in an Order made by His Majesty in Council, on the Sixteenth Day of October One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, on the Exportation, or the loading or laying on board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof, should be, and continue in force until the Expiration of Forty Days after the Commencement of the First Session of Parliament that should be begun and holden after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and one: excepting, nevertheless, out of such Prohibitions, any foreign Corn, or Meal, or Flour, that should have been imported and Warehoused in the Manner, and under the Conditions mentioned in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty of foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and should not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, and with Exception also as to the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, from Great Britain, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act.

And whereas His Majesty was also pleased by his said Order in Council of the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to continue in like Manner, and for the like Term the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain, any foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatever; and also the Liberty to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption any such foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and likewise the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse, and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Scur Crout; provided a due Entry should be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that should be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same should be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty;" and to continue for the same Period, "An Act of the last Session of Parliament for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn, or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" the said Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the subsequent Acts continuing the same, are further continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three:

And whereas, His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to order that his said Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, should be continued in Force for and during the Space of Six Months from the Date hereof; and whereas the said last-mentioned Order in Council will now shortly expire, and whereas it is expedient further to continue the same with such Alteration and Exception, as is hereinafter mentioned, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers so vested in His Majesty, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export Corn, or any of the Articles as aforesaid, and the said Permission to import and take out of Warehouse, foreign Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision, excepting only the Article of Rice, as expressed in the said Order, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, with every Exception, proviso, Rule, Regulation, and Restriction specified in the said Order respecting such Exportation, Importation, or taking out of Warehouse; and all Matters and Things in the said Orders contained, shall be and continue in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three; and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawcener.

St. James's, June 9, 1802.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Queensferry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Borough of Queensferry, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble but heartfelt Tribute of Gratulation and Thankfulness upon the happy Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, whereby your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Goodness have put a Period to the burdensome and expensive War, in which not only these Realms, but almost all other Parts of the civilized World have been so long involved.

That the salutary Spirit of Peace may continue to pervade and inspire your Councils; that Industry, and (under your Royal Auspices and Example,) the due and meritorious Cultivation of all the Arts which tend to benefit or adorn Humanity, may ever distinguish the Character, and constitute the peculiar Felicity of your Subjects, and that your Majesty may long reign in Happiness over a free, a loyal, and an united People, is our earnest and ardent Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Queensferry, this 8th Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two Years. The Seal of the Burgh being also hereunto affixed.

[Transmitted by Sir John Henderson, Baronet.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Culrofs, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble, but heartfelt Tribute of Gratulation and Thankfulness, upon the happy Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, whereby your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Goodness have finally terminated the burdensome and expensive War, in which not only these Realms, but all other Parts of the civilized World have been so long involved.

That the salutary Spirit of Peace may continue to pervade and inspire your Councils; that Industry, and (under your Royal Auspices and Example,) the due and meritorious Cultivation of all the Arts which tend to benefit or adorn Humanity, may ever distinguish the Character, and constitute the peculiar Felicity of your Subjects, and that your Majesty may long reign in Happiness over a free, a loyal, and an united People, is our earnest and ardent Prayer.

St. James's, June 9, 1802.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty received very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common-Council assembled, with the most zealous Affection, embrace this Opportunity of approaching the Throne of the best of Kings with our sincere Congratulations on the late happy Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions; an Event which must prove so highly pleasing to your Majesty, and salutary to the Empire, cannot fail of diffusing universal Joy amongst all your faithful Subjects, and must, therefore, necessarily fill our Hearts with the utmost Thankfulness to Divine Providence. Permit us to assure your Majesty, that your loyal Citizens of Dublin will be ever ready to evince their warmest Gratitude to your Majesty for your uniform paternal Care, and especially for this recent Instance of your Attention, in securing to your People the Blessings of Peace, in which every Part of Europe was so deeply interested.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the Twenty-fourth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Foreman, and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Foreman, and Grand Jurors of the County of Dublin, assembled at Easter Term One thousand eight hundred and two, request to be permitted to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions (as well as to Europe in general) upon safe and honorable Conditions.

Your Majesty has the Satisfaction of feeling that the Devotion of your Subjects is unabated, that the Character of your People has been exalted beyond Praise, that the Dominions, Commerce, and Resources of the Nation have been encreased.

To the Excellence of the Principles of our glorious Constitution, to the Heroism and Discipline of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, to the Example of your private Virtues, and the Firmness of your Majesty's Measures, we are indebted, under Providence, for these Advantages.

May your Majesty long live to witness the Blessings resulting from Peace, and to receive the affectionate Homage of a loyal, grateful, and united Empire.

St. James's, June 9, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your Majesty's ancient and faithful City of Worcester, impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude, Loyalty, and Affection, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy Termination of the War, on the Event of which depended our Religion, our Laws, and the very Existence of our most excellent Constitution.

We cannot have a stronger Assurance of your Majesty's Attention to the Happiness and Prosperity of your Subjects; and we cannot too much acknowledge your Majesty's gracious Manifestation of your late Goodness towards us in obtaining the most desirable of all Objects the Restoration of Peace and Tranquillity to all Europe.

Conscious of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we shall unceasingly offer up our fervent Prayers to the Almighty long to preserve your Majesty to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispersed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council-Chamber of the said City, the Third Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by the Earl of Coventry.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt Satisfaction upon the happy Restoration of Peace.

To your Majesty's uniform Magnanimity and Firmness, to the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and to the unexampled Valour and Perseverance of your Fleets and Armies, we are, under the Favour of Divine Providence, indebted for a happy Termination of the most arduous Struggle for the Preservation of Religion, Laws, and Liberty, in which these Kingdoms have ever been engaged.

That we may long enjoy the Blessings of Peace, and that your Majesty's Life may be prolonged to a very late Period, for the Happiness and Prosperity of these United Kingdoms, is and ever must be the most fervent Prayer of all your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects.

[Presented by Sir John Callander, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Rye.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Person to express how sensibly we feel your paternal Care and Goodness in restoring to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace; and that, by the Mildness and Wisdom of your Government, you have united your People in every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection.

At the same Time, we presume to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty on the unexampled Prosperity of your Dominions, after having with-flood the Shock of so long, so bloody, and so expensive a War, ruinous in its Consequences to so many surrounding Countries.

The wise and salutary Prudence of your Majesty's Councils, and the heroic Courage of your Forces by Sea and Land, have been eminently conspicuous.

May Heaven bestow on your Majesty long Life, with Health and every other Blessing, that you may continue to your People the Happiness they have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

Signed at the unanimous Request, and in the Name of the Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Rye, at a Meeting held at the Guildhall this Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Effoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Cotton-Mill belonging to Messrs. Gardom, Pares, and Co. called Calver-Mill, at Calver, in the Parish of Bakewell, in the County of Derby, was, on or about the 17th Day of May last, burned down, and that there is Reason to believe that the same was maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Mill on Fire, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set the same on Fire,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Messrs. Gardom, Pares, and Co. to any Person making Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

And a further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, upon the like Conditions and Exceptions, by the Sun Fire-Office;

And a further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, upon like Conditions and Exceptions, by the Phoenix Fire-Office of London.

For Messrs. Gardom, Pares, and Co.

James Heygate.

St. James's, June 11, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Sanquhar, in Name of all the Inhabitants of that Burgh, beg Leave with all Duty and Respect to present to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations upon the Conclusion of the War, and our most grateful Thanks for restoring to your People the Blessings of Peace.

We are fully convinced, that in procuring to us this great Benefit, your Majesty has consulted at once the Honour and Prosperity of your Empire, and that your Majesty's Ministers, in treating with the Enemy, have obtained the very best Terms, which, under the existing Circumstances, could reasonably be expected, and we applaud the Prudence and Humanity of your Majesty's Councils, in putting an End to a Contest, which could not have been continued longer with any certain Advantage to your Majesty's Dominions. But, while we thus offer your Majesty our Congratulations and Thanks upon the Termination of the War, we exult in the Glory which your Majesty's Arms have acquired during the Course of it; the brilliant Victories which have been achieved by your Majesty's Fleets and Armies will stand distinguished in the British Annals, and both the War and the Peace will redound to your Majesty's Honour, whose sole Aim, as the common Father of your People, has ever been their Safety, their Honour, and their Prosperity.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council, this Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two Years, by William Otto, Provost.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and others, Landholders of Aberdeenshire, to approach the Throne, and to join our Fellow Subjects in uttering the Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for your parental Attention to the Welfare of your People in restoring to them the Blessings of Peace.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Satisfaction of seeing all your Subjects, by Means of domestic Union, and a steady Cultivation of the Arts of Peace, reap the Fruits of the public Tranquillity, which your Majesty's most gracious Endeavours have succeeded in procuring for them, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of a General Meeting of the Noblemen, &c. of the County of Aberdeen, held at Aberdeen, the Twenty-eighth of May One thousand eight hundred and two, by Errol, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal, affectionate, and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of the Land Tax, and Heritors of the Stewarty of Kirkcudbright, assembled at our Annual General Meeting, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations and sincerest Gratitude for having restored to your Dominions the Blessings of Peace.

We assure your Majesty that we will use our best Exertions to make the Peace productive of every possible Benefit, so far as our Influence or Example can extend, as the surest Means to repair the Devastations of a War carried on for preserving the Blessings of political and religious Liberty, and of social Order.

That your Majesty may be long preserved in the Enjoyment of good Health and every other Comfort, for the Happiness of your Dominions, is the fervent Wish of your loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Signed, by the Appointment of the Meeting, by their Preses.
Pat. Heron, Preses.

Kirkcudbright, 30th April 1802.

Whitehall, June 12, 1802.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Thursday the 20th of May last, about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Cart of Mr. Robert Bailey, of Calstone Mills, in the County of Wilts, having in it about Thirty Broad Cloths, was attacked between Warminster and Devizes by Five Men with their Coats off, Four of whom had their Faces disguised, (a Sixth Man holding their Coats at a Distance,) who compelled the Driver to leave the Cart whilst they cut and otherwise greatly injured about Fourteen of the said Cloths;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring Outrage abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me Matthew Davies, Solicitor.

Warminster, 10th June 1802.

Whitehall, June 12, 1802.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Cotton-Mill belonging to Messrs. Gardom, Pares, and Co. called Calver-Mill, at Calver, in the Parish of Bakewell, in the County of Derby, was, on or about the 17th Day of May last, burned down, and that there is Reason to believe that the same was maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Mill on Fire, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set the same on Fire,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Messrs. Gardom, Pares, and Co. to any Person making Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

And a further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, upon the like Conditions and Exceptions, by the Sun Fire-Office:

And a further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, upon the like Conditions and Exceptions, by the Phoenix Fire-Office of London.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, and to continue, for the same Period, an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorised, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, during the Continuance of the said Act, from Time to Time, when, and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, or under and subject to such Restrictions, Regulations, and Provisions as shall be specified by His said Majesty, in any Order in Council, the Exportation from any Part of Great Britain of any Articles of Provision; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition, either in Part or in the Whole, or to make any new Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions relating thereto, as Circumstances may require, any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from the Twelfth Day of this instant June, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, no Person or Persons whosoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef,

Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulls, or Pearl Barley: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel on its Voyage out and Home for the Subsistence, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustainance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Benicoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively, in such Quantities as shall be judged to be necessary by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, upon Application to be made from Time to Time, and under Licences to be granted by their Lordships; or without such Licences, provided Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to Order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bonds, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out; and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are, or may hereafter be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit at any Time any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above-mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such, or the like Coast Suffiance, Coquet, or other Coast Dispatch for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same, as now is, or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize; And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. *W. # P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," (which Act, by subsequent Acts, has been further continued until Forty Days after the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament,) His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to order, (and it was thereby ordered,) that the Prohibition contained in an Order made by His Majesty in Council, on the Sixteenth Day of October One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, on the Exportation, or the loading or laying on board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Biege, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof, should be, and continue in force until the Expiration of Forty Days after the Commencement of the First Session of Parliament that should be begun and holden after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and one: excepting, nevertheless, out of such Prohibitions, any foreign Corn, or Meal, or Flour, that should have been imported and Warehoused in the Manner, and under the Conditions mentioned in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty of foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and should not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, and with Exception also as to the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, from Great Britain, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act.

And whereas His Majesty was also pleased by his said Order in Council of the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to continue in like Manner, and for the like Term the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain, any foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatever; and also the Liberty to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption any such foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and likewise the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse, and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout; provided a due Entry should be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that should be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same should be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty;" and to continue for the same Period, "An Act of the last Session of Parliament for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn, or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" the said Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the subsequent Acts continuing the same, are further continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three:

And whereas, His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to order that his said Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, should be continued in Force for and during the Space of Six Months from the Date hercof; and whereas the said last-mentioned Order in Council will now shortly expire, and whereas it is expedient further to continue the same with such Alteration and Exception, as is hereinafter mentioned, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers vested in His Majesty, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export Corn, or any of the Articles as aforesaid, and the said Permission to import and take out of Warehouse, foreign Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision, excepting only the Article of Rice, as expressed in the said Order, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, with every Exception, Proviso, Rule, Regulation, and Restriction specified in the said Order respecting such Exportation, Importation, or taking out of Warehouse; and all Matters and Things in the said Orders contained, shall be and continue in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three; and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Farckner.

AT the Court at St. James's the 16th of June 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable William Lord Lowther to be Lord Lieutenant of the Counties of Cumberland and Westmorland, His Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Council-Office, Whitehall, June 15, 1802.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint His Grace Hugh Duke of Northumberland, K. G. to be Lord Lieutenant of and in the County of Northumberland, and of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, a Council was this Day held at Northumberland-House, when His Grace took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, June 16, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Most Excellent Majesty GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants, Householders of the ancient City of Westminster, and that Part of the Liberty thereof, which is situated within the united Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants, Householders of the ancient City of Westminster, and that Part of the Liberty thereof, which is situated in the united Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and present to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty at Amiens, by which, through your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness, and the Vigilance, Firmness, and conciliatory Spirit of your Majesty's Administration, the Calamities of War are terminated, and the Blessings of Peace restored; and we ardently pray, that your Majesty, for whose Person and Government we feel a warm and unalterable Attachment, may long happily Reign over a free and united People.

[Presented by F. W. Lubbock, Esq; Richard Hollingworth, Esq; C. Savill, M. P. H. Alexander, M. P. John Blackburne, M. P. Philip Hollingworth, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, with all Humility, to embrace this Opportunity of professing our most sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and to present to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon the Restoration of Peace to these your Kingdoms, by the Conclusion and Ratifications of the late Definitive Treaty.

We cannot but reflect with the utmost Satisfaction, that the wild and destructive Design, by which this Country was threatened at the Commencement of the War, have been effectually disappointed; that your Majesty's Dominions have not only been preserved entire, but valuable and important Acquisitions have been annexed to them; and that we continue in the confirmed Possession of those Means of Exertion which the late Contest has conspicuously proved to be equal for maintaining the Independence, and asserting the Honor of this Country.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will at all Times be ready, along with our fellow Subjects, to support the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of our Country, with the same Zeal and Energy which have been so eminently manifested during the War now happily brought to a Conclusion.

That your Majesty may very long enjoy a peaceable and prosperous Reign, is the Ardent Wish and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen in Council assembled.

Signed in their Name and Presence, and by their Appointment, and the Common Seal of the said City is herunto affixed, at Aberdeen, this Twenty-second Day of May, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and two, by

Ja. Hadden, Provost.

[Presented by James Halghbar, Representative for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care, in restoring to these Realms the inestimable Blessings of Peace and Tranquillity.

Deeply affected with the Prospect of the many Advantages to be derived to our Country from this so desirable and long desired Event, which we consider, under Divine Providence, as the certain Harbinger of the Revival and Extension of our Trade and Commerce, those fruitful and unfailing Sources of our national Prosperity, we cannot forbear mingling this our Offering of Congratulation to your Majesty, inconsiderable as it is, with the general Obligations of a grateful and affectionate People.

May your Majesty's Reign belong and prosperous, and distant Ages rejoice in the same Blessings, under your Royal Family, which your faithful Subjects now enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

In Testimony of the above we beg Leave to subscribe our Names this Fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

J. Mullis, Mayor, Chairman.

[Presented by Wilberforce Bird, Esq; one of the Representatives.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle, and its Neighbourhood, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgments for your paternal Regard in having restored to your People the Blessings of Peace; and, at the same Time, to express our firm and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Principles of our most excellent Constitution. May your Majesty long continue to be revered and beloved as the Father of your People! May the Evening of your Life be tranquil and serene, unclouded by War abroad or Faction at Home! Yet should we, through the Aggressions of any foreign Power, be compelled again to take up Arms, we feel confident that one and the same Spirit would be found to pervade and animate all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, with a firm Determination to preserve inviolate, even with our latest Breath, the Dignity of the Crown, and the Honor, Freedom, and Independence of the Nation.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Portland]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City of Worcester, in Common-Hall assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Worcester, humbly beg Leave, with the Warmest Sentiments of Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Return of Peace to the British Empire.

We contemplate with great Thankfulness, that, under the Blessing of Providence, the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and the Bravery of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, the United Kingdom has been preserved from those dreadful Scenes of War and Devastation with which the surrounding Nations have been afflicted.

It is a Source likewise of unspeakable Gratification, that during the long and arduous Contest in which your Majesty has been engaged, the Patience, Fortitude, and Loyalty of all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects have been most eminently displayed.

Permit us, Sire, to express our ardent Wish that the determined Spirit of Peace and Conciliation now manifested by your Majesty's Councils may have the happy Effect of long continuing to your Majesty and your faithful People, a Blessing which must so materially contribute to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Country.

Signed in the Name, and on Behalf of the Common Hall, the Fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by E. Wigley and A. Roberts, Esqrs; Representatives for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient City of Canterbury, humbly approach the Throne to offer to your Majesty our warmest and most unfeigned Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions.

When we reflect on the eventful Contest in which we were so many Years engaged in Defence of our glorious Constitution, our Religion, and our Laws, we cannot but contemplate, with the highest Degree of Pleasure and National Pride, that, owing to the brilliant and unexampled Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, to the unshaken Loyalty of your People, and the firm and united Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, your Majesty has been enabled, through Divine Providence, to secure to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace, in the full Enjoyment of their most dear and invaluable Rights and Liberties both civil and religious.

We pray that the Advantage to be derived from our present Situation may be diffused throughout all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects; and that, under the Protection of Almighty God, your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and grateful Nation.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, the Eighth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

— Hammond, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Mayor of Canterbury, attended by Alderman Simmons and the City Members.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to appoach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the Restoration of the public Peace.

While we rejoice that, amid the Disasters which other Kingdoms of Europe have experienced, your Majesty and your Royal House have, under the Protection of Divine Providence, been preserved to your grateful and affectionate People, we congratulate your Majesty that the good Sense of the Nation has been eminently manifested in rejecting, with Abhorrence, the Principles of Anarchy, and in adhering with still firmer Attachment, if possible, to those of our invaluable Constitution.

With becoming Sentiments of National Pride we also congratulate your Majesty on the many Instances of Heroism and Valour which have been displayed in your Fleets and Armies during the late arduous Contest, and which have at length enabled your Majesty to exercise your best Prerogative, and to restore, on honorable Terms, the Tranquillity of your Dominions.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to stand forward in Defence and Support of the Honor and Dignity of your Crown, and the Safety and Welfare of the Church and State, if at any Time endangered by foreign or domestic Enemies.

And we unite in Prayer to the Almighty that the Life of your Majesty may be prolonged to a late Period; and that, under your mild Government, this Country may long enjoy the solid Blessings of Peace.

Signed at a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, held at the Town-Hall, Oxford, the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, by Order of the Meeting,

Thomas Toovey, Sheriff.

[Presented by Thomas Toovey, High Sheriff, attended by Lord Charles Spencer, Lord Francis Spencer, John Fane, Esq; G. F. Stratton, Esq; John Spencer, Esq; Sir Henry Dashwood, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of the most sincere Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and humbly to express our warmest Thanks to your Majesty for having graciously complied with the Wishes of your People in concluding a Peace with the Government of France.

We acknowledge with the sincerest and warmest Gratitude your Majesty's Wisdom and constant Attention to the real Welfare of your People, equally conspicuous in your warmest Desire of Peace, and in your fixed and unalterable Resolution never to sacrifice either to that, or the temporary Ease and Relief of your Subjects, those essential Rights and permanent Interests upon the Maintenance and Preservation of which, the future Security of this Country must principally depend.

We most ardently and sincerely hope, that the Peace so recently restored to Europe, may, through the Blessing of the Almighty, and good Faith of the different Governments, long continue, and that nothing may interfere to frustrate the earnest Hope so graciously expressed by your Majesty of securing to your Subjects the Blessings of a long and lasting public Tranquillity.

[Presented by Thomas Owen, Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to offer our grateful Acknowledgments to your Majesty for your paternal Care and Attention towards your People in procuring to them the Blessings of Peace, and consequent Increase of their Trade and Manufactures.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unvaried Loyalty to your Royal Person and Family, and of our sincere Attachment to our excellent Constitution; and we trust to your Royal Regard and Care that the Welfare and Prosperity of your Dominions may be effectually secured by a long Duration of Peace with the neighbouring Nations, and the mild and prudent Administration of our Laws at Home.

In the Possession of every Happiness may your Majesty long continue to reign over a free, united, and grateful People.

Signed for and by Order of the Meeting,

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, humbly beg Leave to express our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the happy Event of Peace, which, under your Majesty's most auspicious Care and Direction, cannot fail to be of lasting and permanent Advantage to the whole of your United Kingdoms.

We have likewise the further Satisfaction of seeing this Blessing become general, and all Christendom (which has so lately trembled for its Religion and Laws,) now possessing, in a great Degree, the same Security with ourselves.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign, that the Blessings of Peace, may, in future attend it, and the Arts of Peace adorn it, is the ardent Wish and earnest Prayer of your ever grateful and loyal People.

[Presented by Thomas Hamer, Esq; High Sheriff, attended by Sir Richard Hill, John Kynaston Porwell, Representatives for the County, and Sir Corbett Corbett, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Dorset.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg to lay at your Majesty's Feet our unfeigned Congratulations, as well as our most sincere and heartfelt Thanks, for that your Majesty has put an End to the Calamities of War, and has restored to this Country the Blessings of Peace, after having, by the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, preserved our most glorious Constitution inviolate, amidst the Wreck of surrounding Nations; and we most fervently pray, that no foreign or domestic Enemies may attempt to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions, but that, under your Majesty's paternal Care, they may long flourish in Peace and Prosperity; and that the Crown, the Laws, and the Constitution of this Kingdom may descend unimpaired to the latest Posterity.

Signed in the Name, and on the Behalf of the County of Dorset, at a Meeting held at Dorchester this Twelfth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

Edmund Morton Pleydell, Sheriff.

[Presented by Edmund Morton Pleydell, Esq; High Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Suffex, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the strongest Feelings of Attachment to your Royal Person, and the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for your parental Care over these United Kingdoms, so strongly marked during the Course of a long Reign by many of the most important Events; but more especially for that dignified Firmness, no less necessary than magnanimous, displayed in the late arduous Conflict, which has happily produced the returning Blessings of Peace, on which we beg Leave most cordially to offer our Congratulations. May the Great Disposer of all Events protect your Majesty, and may your Majesty's Reign long continue the Blessing of your United Kingdoms, happy and prosperous.

[Presented by Sir W. Ashburnham, Bart. Sheriff of the County, attended by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, one of His Majesty's Secretaries of State, Right Honorable Lord Sheffield, Bishop of Chichester, John Fullar, Esq;.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Southampton, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Restoration of the Blessings of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions by the Termination of a War, one of the most interesting both in its Causes and Consequences that has yet been recorded in the Annals of Mankind.

By the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, and the unparalleled Exertions and Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, not only these Kingdoms and their Dependencies have been preserved inviolate, but the Perils that threatened the moral and religious Principles of all the civilized World have been averted.

To this long and arduous Contest so happily terminated, may many, very many, Years of Peace and Tranquillity succeed, and your Majesty continue to reign over a powerful, united, and grateful People, enjoying every Blessing of public Prosperity and domestic Happiness; and may that warm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, which induced your Subjects of every Rank and Description to stand forth in the Hour of Difficulty and Danger, still manifest itself by every possible Instance of Duty and Affection to the best of Kings.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our Congratulations on the happy Re-establishment of Peace in your Majesty's Dominions and in Europe.

We have admired, with Gratitude, the great and glorious Exertions of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which have brought about this joyful Event; and we feel peculiar Satisfaction in the final Arrangement of the Treaty having been confided to the Wisdom of our illustrious and highly esteemed Countryman.

We trust that your Majesty's Dominions will enjoy the Blessings of a permanent Peace; and earnestly pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united Nation.

Thomas Cocksedge, High Sheriff.

[Presented by the High Sheriff, and attended by the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Huntingfield, Lord Viscount Brome, Sir Thomas Charles Bunbury, Bart. Sir Gilbert Aylick, Bart. W. B. Rusb, Esq; Sir C. Kent, Sir T. G. Cullum, A. Adair, Esq; and G. Mathew, Esq;.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Freeholders of the County of Leicester, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warm and unanimous Congratulations on the timely Restoration of Peace to your united Kingdoms, and on the eventual Extension and Confirmation of it to the Rest of Europe and of the civilized World.

To the Prudence and Firmness of your Majesty's Counsels, supported by the steady Patriotism of Parliament, and of the People in general, and to the unrivalled Achievements of your Fleets and Armies, (Exertions which we confidently trust will revive on every renewed Occasion) we rejoice to acknowledge that, under Providence, we are indebted for the Maintenance of our Religion inviolate, of our free and happy Constitution unimpaired, and for the Preservation of your Majesty's widely extended Dominions not only entire, but even at the End of such an obdurate and arduous Conflict, by additional Bulwarks protected and enlarged, amid the Convulsions that in so many neighbouring Nations have subverted their municipal Laws and ancient Forms of Government, have loosened the Bonds of civil and of social Order, undermined all moral Institutions, and shaken the very Altars of our God.

For the uninterrupted Enjoyment of such invaluable Blessings, whilst surrounded by Anarchy and Misrule, we look back on your Majesty's constant Vigilance and Care with Sentiments of Gratitude and Affection, not less ardent than those with which we confidently anticipate your Solitude for our increasing Prosperity, by a sincere and earnest Cultivation of the Spirit and the Arts of Peace; and, impressed with the full Influence of your Majesty's paternal Goodness on our present singular and enviable State of Welfare, we shall never cease to implore of Divine Providence that, by His gracious Interposition, He may still continue to guard your sacred Person, to augment the Splendor and Happiness of your Royal and Illustrious Family, and transmit to the Love and Reverence of the latest Posterity the auspicious Character of your Majesty's mild, beneficent, and patriotic Reign.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Assistants, Freemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Alban, in the County of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Assistants, Freemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Alban, in the County of Hertford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our thankful Acknowledgments for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

And more particularly we acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention shewn to us and the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects of the United Kingdom in putting an End to the late War.

Sensible of the many Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and trusting to your Majesty's constant Endeavours for the Prosperity of your People. We hope that your Majesty will long reign over a free and happy Nation, and that the Sceptre may continue in your Majesty's Family, as a Blessing to Posterity to the latest Generation of your illustrious House.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Councilmen of the antient Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our unfeigned Congratulations on the Restoration of the invaluable Blessings of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions.

We cannot reflect upon the various Engagements, both by Sea and Land, in which your Majesty's Forces, during a severe Contest of Nine Years, have so eminently distinguished themselves, without gratefully acknowledging the Favour and Protection of Divine Providence, and without entertaining the highest Veneration of your Majesty and your Councils, by whose Wisdom and Energy, in the Choice of your Majesty's Commanders, and the Direction of your Forces, this Country has been enabled to check the ambitious Views of a powerful and inveterate Foe, who aimed at universal Empire.

Having, under your Majesty's paternal Care, now attained the Blessings of Peace, we hope we shall long enjoy them, and we ardently and sincerely Wish that your Majesty's Life may long be preserved to participate in the Happiness and Prosperity of your dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the Twenty-fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Lord Milfintoun.]

BE pleased, most gracious Sovereign, to accept the cordial and respectful Congratulations of your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, who participate the general Joy diffused through your Majesty's Dominions on the happy Return of Peace, which, under the protecting Arm of the Almighty, has been given to contending Nations; and contemplate, in the Prowess of your Majesty's Arms, the Wonders performed in every Part of the Globe by your Fleets and Armies, whose Achievements have been conducted with that Spirit and Coolness which evince that the Sword was drawn by Britons only to protect their Rights; and that, during the Course of an unexampled Struggle, it has not been stained by that Barbarism which too generally adds to the Calamities of War.

We beg Leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty in not only having lived to see the Restoration of Peace, but in having nobly sheathed the Sword in the very Triumph of Victory, proving to the World that a great Mind is best exemplified by its Humanity and Moderation.

May your Majesty's Reign be yet long and happy; and may the Blessings of Peace be so generally diffused through your Majesty's Realm, that the Prosperity and Happiness of your Subjects may prove a Source of unceasing Comfort to the best of Sovereigns—the Father of his People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our heartfelt and unanimous Congratulations on the Attainment of Peace.

We are thankful for the Blessing which the Wisdom, Firmness, and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils have procured for the Empire; we are persuaded that your Majesty's paternal Care will be employed, as well to cultivate and improve it, as to prevent all such Occasions of Misunderstanding with foreign Powers as might endanger it; but, whilst we express our Hope, and trust that Tranquillity may long continue amongst us, allow us to add our Assurance to your Majesty, that we will at all Times be ready to support the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of our Country with the same Zeal, Energy, and Fortitude which your Majesty's faithful Subjects have invariably manifested during the War, now happily brought to a Conclusion.

We pray that that Providence, which, amidst the Wreck of Empires, has preserved to this Country such innumerable Blessings will permit your Majesty long to witness and promote the Happiness of your People.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Approved Men, and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Approved Men, and Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Andover, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace; and particularly to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Services of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which, under Divine Providence, have been the Means of effecting so requisite and desirable an Event: The Burthens of the War we felt in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects; but however heavy they may have been, and however we should lament the Renewal of them, yet, if necessary for the Honor and Defence of your Majesty's Crown and Government, we shall at all Times be ready to make our utmost Exertions for the Dignity and Protection of both: And that your Majesty may long live to reign over a happy and free People is the most sincere Prayer of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects the Corporation of Andover.

Given under our Common Seal this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Asheton Smith, Esq.]

May it please your Majesty,

VIEWING, with inexpressible Joy, the true and natural Feelings which, from your Majesty's Wisdom, have been restored to a loyal Nation by a happy and most satisfactory Peace, we, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's Corporation of Romsey, humbly, but sincerely, approach your Royal Throne with our most fervent Thanks for your Majesty's paternal Regard for your faithful People.

We have deplored the Miseries of a War into which your Majesty's Kingdom has been necessarily coerced; but our utmost Ability has been cheerfully contributed for the Preservation of a Sovereign whom we love, and of a Constitution for which we ever have been, and still are prepared to die. Our Hearts are at your Majesty's Throne. Our Gratitude for the long wished Blessing shall be lasting. May the Love of your People continue to constitute the Solidity of your Government, the Felicity of your Empire, and the Glory of your Reign; and may the Arms and Hearts of Britons perpetually guard their patriot King, his Posterity, and his Crown.

We humbly beg Leave, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty on the great and glorious Achievements gained so nobly by your Majesty's Navy and Army in the Course of their general Services, which have so much contributed to the gaining this most desirable Object, which your Majesty's Love for your People, through the Wisdom of your Councils, has procured for this most faithful, loyal, and united Kingdom.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the Corporation of the said Town to be hereto affixed, this Eleventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Sir William Heathcote, Bart. attended by Mr. Chute.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Assistant-Justices, Capital Burgesses, and Burgesses of the Common-Council of the ancient Borough of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave, with the sincerest Expressions of Respect and Duty to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the happy Restoration of Peace.

While we participate in the universal Joy which this auspicious Event has diffused through every Rank of your Majesty's Subjects, we recollect with Pride and Satisfaction the glorious Efforts which this Country has made during the late important Contest, for the Preservation of her own internal Security, and the general Interests of Europe.

Reflecting with lively Gratitude on the rational Freedom which it is our Happiness to enjoy under the Influence of our venerable Constitution, and the mild and paternal Benificence of your Majesty's Reign, we bless the Wisdom and Energy of those Councils by which the Laws and Liberties of our Country have been preserved, amidst the Wreck of powerful States, and the general Subversion of social Order.

We contemplate with the warmest Admiration, the unexampled and illustrious Achievements of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land; the Security and Extension of your Majesty's Empire in the East, and the Establishment of our great national Bulwark, by the unrivalled Dominion of the Sea, are Objects of the first Importance, alike conducive to the Commercial Prosperity of this Country, and the Glory of the British Name.

These are the Triumphs which our valiant Countrymen have acquired, under Circumstances of peculiar Difficulty, the destructive Influence of a foreign Climate, the Disadvantage of unequal Force, and the Opposition of confederated Powers; and we feel a well-grounded Confidence, that on any future Occasion, the same gallant Exertions on their Part will be seconded by the same generous and patriotic Ardour which animated every Description of your Majesty's Subjects to unite in supporting the Throne of their King, and the Constitution of their Ancestors.

Impressed with these Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, we bend with Thankfulness to the Almighty Disposer of Events, whose Providence has signally interposed for the Deliverance of both, from the secret Machinations of evil Men, fervently imploring the Continuance of that Guardian Care for the Safety of our beloved Sovereign, and the Protection of these his Dominions.

Long may you, Sir, continue to rule this United Kingdom in Prosperity and Peace; may your Subjects be duly sensible of the Happiness which they enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, and may your paternal Solicitude for their Welfare, receive its glorious Recompence in the Blessings of a grateful and affectionate People.

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Burgeses of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgeses of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, in the warmest Sentiments of our Hearts, to express our Joy and most grateful Thanks to your Majesty for putting an End to the Calamities of War, and restoring to us the Blessings of Peace.

We are equally sensible of the tender Regard your Majesty has shewn for your People, not only in the Establishment of the public Tranquillity, but, in the midst of all your Difficulties, in preserving to us our most excellent and envied Constitution.

In this happy Situation, Sir, we, your faithful Subjects, shall always think it our indispensable Duty to add our hearty and most fervent Prayers that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and happy, no more disturbed by foreign War or domestic Faction, but that you may enjoy the Fruits, and cultivate the Arts, of that Peace you have so happily accomplished; and that all your Majesty's Subjects, who cannot but feel, may have the Gratitude also to acknowledge the many and great Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equal Government, and, as they share in its Advantages, contribute to its Support and Honor.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall, in Bewdley aforesaid, this Twelfth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, in the County of Oxford. June 1, 1862.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, return our sincere Thanks for your paternal Care and Goodness in graciously communicating, by Proclamation, the happy Event of your having put an End to a most calamitous War, begun from Necessity, conducted with Wisdom and Valour, and ended by Prudence, amidst, as we conceive, the most unparalleled Perils and Dangers, foreign and domestic, that ever existed in the World.

We this Day, in Obedience to Command, attended Divine Worship to offer up our Praises and Thanksgivings to Almighty God, in religious Exultation, for the manifest Blessings restored unto us; and we believe it a Time the most proper to present at your Majesty's Throne, as we presume to do, our unfeigned Congratulations on these happy Events. And we beg Leave to assure you, that we will constantly implore the Divine Power to continue to your Majesty a long, peaceable, and happy Reign over a loyal and grateful Nation; and that, finally, it may be His blessed Will to exalt you unto His everlasting Kingdom.

The humble Address of the Alderman, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, highly gratified with your Majesty's late most gracious Proclamation of Peace, and thoroughly sensible that the Welfare and Prosperity of your Majesty's People is at all Times inseparably connected with the Happiness of their beloved Sovereign, beg Leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the Termination of the War, and to assure your Majesty that the most ardent Wishes of the Inhabitants of Wokingham are, that your Majesty's Reign, crowned, as it is, with Peace and Plenty, may, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, long continue over a free, happy, and united People.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, with Sentiments of the highest Respect and most unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and offer our humble, yet sincere, Congratulations on the Treaty of Peace lately concluded with the French Republic and her Allies.

The Success which has attended your Majesty's anxious Endeavours to procure for your faithful People the Blessings of Peace, at the same Time that it calls forth our warmest Acknowledgment and Thanks, gives a further Proof, were any necessary, of your Majesty's paternal Solicitude for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects.

The unexampled Exertions and Intrepidity displayed by your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, conspicuous as they must have appeared in the Eyes of all Europe, and to which, under Providence, it is principally indebted for the Restoration of Tranquillity, whilst they furnish us with a well-grounded Confidence in our own Strength, cannot fail, we trust, of enabling this Kingdom to support that Rank in the Scale of Nations it must be the dearest Wish, as it ought to be the chief Pride, of every Friend of his Country it should ever maintain.

Sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we bow down with Gratitude to the Divine Goodness, earnestly imploring your Majesty's Reign may long be rendered happy and prosperous over a free, loyal, and united People.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the happy Termination of a most critical and important Contest, and on the joyful Restoration of Peace to all your Majesty's Dominions.

Deeply sensible of your Majesty's affectionate Concern for your Subjects, and firmly relying on the Wisdom and Integrity of your Councils, we have dutifully and cheerfully submitted, for a Series of Nine Years past, to all the Inconveniences of the War, humbly conceiving that such vigorous and decisive Measures, though highly painful to your Majesty's most benevolent Disposition, were essentially necessary for the Preservation of your People; and being fully convinced that the War was conducted on your Majesty's Part with the most humane Attention to the Comforts and Condition of every Order of your Subjects, and with unexampled Generosity and Compassion to your Enemies.

We thankfully acknowledge that your Majesty has seized the earliest Opportunity of relieving us from the Calamities of a War which your Majesty was anxiously desirous to prevent, and has often endeavoured, with equal Anxiety, to bring to an honorable Conclusion; and it is our earnest Wish that we, with all the Inhabitants of this highly favoured Empire, living under the best of Constitutions and the kindest of Sovereigns, may long continue to be a loyal, happy, and united People.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Liberties of Shrewsbury, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most lively Sentiments of Affection to congratulate your Majesty on the Return of Peace to the United Kingdoms.

We heartily join with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects in expressing our warmest Admiration and Praise of those glorious Achievements which have distinguished your Majesty's Arms throughout this memorable Contest. Indeed, when we contemplate the Nature of the late War, and the unexampled Difficulties attending its Progress, our Minds are impressed with a deep Sense of the genuine Patriotism displayed by all Descriptions of your Majesty's People in maintaining the Honor and Independence of their Country, and the Purity of that inestimable Constitution under which they have the Happiness to live.

We beg to assure your Majesty that we shall studiously endeavour, as the best Return we can make for the Blessings of Peace, to discharge the Duties of our several Stations in such Manner as may tend to improve and perpetuate those Blessings, convinced that this is the only Acknowledgment by which we can manifest a due Regard to the Favour of Providence, or render our present Offerings in any Degree worthy of your Majesty's Approbation.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to offer our humble but hearty Congratulations to your Majesty on the Termination of Hostilities, and the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace.

We ascribe it, under Divine Providence, to the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, the Intrepidity of your Majesty's Forces, and the Loyalty of your Majesty's Subjects, that your Majesty has been enabled to bring the arduous and unexampled Contest in which we have been engaged to a happy Conclusion.

It has been an Occasion of great Exultation to your Majesty's Subjects, and must have afforded to your Majesty the highest Satisfaction to have seen the Hearts of all Ranks of your Majesty's People like the Heart of one Man, united in a fixed Determination to brave any Danger, and make any Sacrifice in Defence of their King and Constitution, their Liberty, and their Religion; and though we most earnestly hope that your Majesty's Dominions may long enjoy, in undisturbed Security, the Advantages of Peace, yet should it at any Time be unavoidably necessary to recur to the Alternative of War, your Majesty may assure yourself that we shall ever be found ready to assist, with the truest Ardour, in maintaining the Honor and Safety of your Majesty's United Kingdom.

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of the Island of Guernsey.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and States of your Island of Guernsey, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Return of Peace, by which is terminated a War bloody and extended, but just and necessary, and in the Progress of which Actions have been performed by your Majesty's Fleets and Armies which stand unrivalled in the brightest Annals of British Glory.

We acknowledge with Sentiments of the warmest Gratitude, that to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils it is (under the Divine Providence) to be attributed that we, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, have been protected in the Advantages resulting from an extensive Commerce, and maintained in the full Enjoyment of our civil and religious Rights during the whole Course of the late arduous and eventful Conflict; and that Peace is now restored with Resources unexhausted, a valuable Addition made to your Mu-Majesty's foreign Possessions, and with the National Spirit, as well as the National Character, at the highest Pitch of Elevation.

That your Majesty may long, very long, live to ensure and to participate in the Happiness of a grateful, an affectionate, and a loyal People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and most dutiful Subjects.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Scottish Presbytery, in London and the Vicinity, approach your Royal Person with every Sentiment of Loyalty, Attachment, and Affection, to express the Gratitude which we feel in contemplating the Blessings conferred on the British Empire by the Restoration of Peace to Europe. These Blessings we must ascribe, under Divine Providence, to your Majesty's paternal Regard to the real Interests of the great People committed to your Care, to the Wisdom of your Councils, and to the tender Humanity by which you are prompted to diminish the Calamities, and extend the Felicity of the human Race. We pray Almighty God to crown your Majesty with Length of Days to behold and to enjoy the increasing Veneration, Gratitude, and Love of the Nations whom He raised you to govern. May your Royal Breast never more be disturbed by external War nor internal Discord.

It shall be our constant Study and Endeavour, Sir, as it is our Duty, in our several Spheres, to promote the Cause of good Order, Peace, Virtue, and Religion, which we are well assured your Majesty will consider as the surest Test of Allegiance to our Sovereign, and of Love to our Country.

May Heaven guard your Person, support your Throne, and multiply your Comforts, till at length, far distant be the Day, full of Years, full of Glory, you shall be called to exchange the most splendid of earthly Crowns for one celestial and eternal.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of June 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act
" to continue, until the First Day of January One " thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an " Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of " His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Expor" tation and permitting the Importation of Corn,
" and for allowing the Importation of other Ar" ticles of Provision without Payment of Duty,
" and to continue, for the same Period, an Act of " the last Session of Parliament, for prohibiting the " Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes,
" or other Provisions, and for permitting the Im" portation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provi" sions, without Payment of Duty;" it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorized, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, during the Continuance of the said Act, from Time to Time, when, and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, or under and subject to such Restrictions, Regulations, and Provisions as shall be specified by His said Majesty, in any Order in Council, the Exportation from any Part of Great Britain of any Articles of Provision; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition, either in Part or in the Whole, or to make any new Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions relating thereto, as Circumstances may require, any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from the Twelfth Day of this instant June, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, no Person or Persons whosoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles; viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel on its Voyage out and Home for the Sustainance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustainance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively, in such Quantities as shall be judged to be necessary by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, upon Application to be made from Time to Time, and under Licences to be granted by their Lordships; or without such Licences, provided Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture: ♥

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to Order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bonds, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out; and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are, or may hereafter be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit at any Time any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such, or the like Coast Suffrance, Coquet, or other Coast Dispatch for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same, as now is, or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawkesner.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Thirty ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," (which Act, by subsequent Acts, has been further continued until Forty Days after the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament,) His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to order, (and it was thereby ordered,) that the Prohibition contained in an Order made by His Majesty in Council, on the Sixteenth Day of October One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, on the Exportation, or the loading or laying on board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof, should be, and continue in force until the Expiration of Forty Days after the Commencement of the First Session of Parliament that should be begun and holden after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and one: excepting, nevertheless, out of such Prohibitions, any foreign Corn, or Meal, or Flour, that should have been imported and Warehoused in the Manner, and under the Conditions mentioned in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty of foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and should not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, and with Exception also as to the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, from Great Britain, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act.

And whereas His Majesty was also pleased by his said Order in Council of the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to continue in like Manner, and for the like Term the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain, any foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatever; and also the Liberty to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption any such foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and likewise the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse, and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout; provided a due Entry should be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that should be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same should be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty;" and to continue for the same Period, "An Act of the last Session of Parliament for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn, or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" the said Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the subsequent Acts continuing the same, are further continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three:

And whereas, His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to order that his said Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, should be continued in Force for and during the Space of Six Months from the Date hereof; and whereas the said last-mentioned Order in Council will now shortly expire, and whereas it is expedient further to continue the same with such Alteration and Exception, as is hereinafter mentioned, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers so vested in His Majesty, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export Corn, or any of the Articles as aforesaid, and the said Permission to import and take out of Warehouse, foreign Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision, excepting only the Article of Rice, as expressed in the said Order, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, with every Exception, proviso, Rule, Regulation, and Restriction specified in the said Order respecting such Exportation, Importation, or taking out of Warehouse; and all Matters and Things in the said Orders contained, shall be and continue in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three; and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawcener.

St. James's, June 18, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your antient and loyal City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Whilst we gratefully acknowledge the many and invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Sway, we cannot refrain from congratulating your Majesty on the Termination of a War which, in a Manner and Degree unknown in former Contests, threatened the Destruction of our dearest Rights and Interest.

With honest Exultation we have seen, that by the energetic Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, aided by the unexampled Valour of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, the British Name has been raised to the highest Pitch of Distinction, and, ultimately, an End put to the Devastations and Calamities of War.

It is our earnest prayer, that your Majesty may, to the latest Period of a long Life, enjoy the pure and exalted Satisfaction of beholding the Prosperity of a free and united People.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Belgrave and Thomas Grosvenor, Esq; Representatives for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity.

We rejoice, that the arduous Contest in which this Country has been so long engaged has, by the Favor of Divine Providence, been brought to a Conclusion; and we contemplate, with Gratitude and Satisfaction, the Spirit and Bravery which have so eminently distinguished your Fleets and Armies, and the laudable Efforts of all Ranks of your Subjects, in support of their Religion, their Laws, and their Independence.

We assure your Majesty, that constant as the Exertions, and great and serious as the Sacrifices have been which we have made during the War, we shall be ready to renew them with equal Spirit and Perseverance if, from unavoidable Causes, they hereafter should be required for the just Defence of your Majesty's Dignity and Honor, and the Security and Welfare of the Empire.

We flatter ourselves that such an Event is far distant; and it is our earnest Prayer, that the Blessings of Peace may be continued to us; and that your Majesty may long live to witness the Affection and the Attachment of an happy, loyal, and united People. In the Name of the County,

R. C. Elwes, Sheriff.

[Presented by W. R. Cartwright and Francis Dickens, Esq;]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Principal Inhabitants of the antient Borough and Town of Monmouth, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the Success which has attended your Majesty's anxious Exertions in the Restoration of Peace; and we doubt not but your paternal Care, ever watchful over national Happiness, will continue to be exercised for the Preservation of this most valuable Blessing.

Having on this, as on every other Occasion, experienced the Beneficence of our most gracious Sovereign, we beseech your Majesty to accept the Tribute of Hearts deeply impressed with Gratitude; and we earnestly implore the Divine Goodness to prolong your Majesty's auspicious Reign over a loyal, happy, and united People.

[Presented by Lord Edward Somerset.]

St. James's, June 24, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the County of Kincardine, in North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Frecholders, and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with our Congratulations on the successful Termination of the late arduous Contest, in which this Nation was compelled to engage for the Preservation of its political Existence, and the Security of its Religion, Liberty, and Laws.

We cannot sufficiently express our Gratitude and Thanks for the paternal Care and Attention manifested by your Majesty in watching over and securing to your People all these invaluable Blessings. The Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Bravery of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, aided by Divine Providence, have been enabled to oppose with Success, a powerful Combination of foreign Enemies, assisted, we are sorry to say, by domestic Traitors, and to conclude, by an honorable Peace, a War glorious to this Nation.

It is our most earnest Wish and fervent Prayer, that the same Almighty Power, which has been pleased to protect these Kingdoms so remarkably in the late War, will long grant your Majesty to reign in Peace over us, undisturbed by Foes from Abroad or Faction at Home, the happy Sovereign and Father of a free, an independent, and a loyal People.

Signed by our Appointment, in our Name and Presence, by Alexander Burnett, of Strachan, Esquire, Advocate, Sheriff Depute of said County, our Prefes, at Stonehaven, this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

M. Burnett, Prefes.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Alderney assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the States of the Island of Alderney assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and hearty Congratulations on the Return of Peace.

Situated as we are, within a few Miles of the Enemy's Coast, we have experienced, during the Whole of a Nine Year's War, the most undoubted Proofs of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to our Defence. The Protection that we have received from the Mother Country has been great and effective. During the late arduous Contest the Inhabitants of this little Island have been called upon for, and have shewn more Energy and Vigour than in any preceding Period, yet severe as these Exertions may have been, they shall be renewed with equal Spirit the Instant they are required for the Support of your Majesty's Dignity and the Safety of our native Land.

To the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils we owe our present tranquil State, and to the watchful Care of His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief of your Majesty's Army, who has ever lent a most gracious Ear to our Wishes, we are indebted for that Security, which, even in the midst of Alarms, has caused this Island to enjoy a well-grounded Confidence in its Means of Defence.

Whilst, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Gratitude, we beseech your Majesty to accept our most grateful Thanks for having put an End to the Calamities of War, we cannot but mention the uncommon Skill, Zeal, and Intrepidity with which the Officers of your Navy, sent off this Coast for its Security, have performed that Service.

We devoutly pray the Almighty Giver of all good Gifts to shower down on your Majesty His most precious Favours, and to grant to your Majesty a long, happy, and prosperous Reign.

Peter Le Mesurier, Governor and Commander in Chief.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Winchelsea.

SIRE,

WE, the Mayor, Jurats, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Winchelsea, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgments for restoring to your People the invaluable Blessing of Peace.

Though we greatly lament those calamitous Events which have taken place on the extensive Theatre of the present War, it is with the utmost Satisfaction we contemplate, that those wild and anarchical Designs have been frustrated, which every where threatened both the Throne and the Altar, and that a Contest which involved in it the dearest Interests of Society, has come to a happy, and we hope solid, Termination. It is to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, under Providence, that we are indebted for carrying us through the unprecedented Difficulties in which we have been engaged, and calling into animated Exertion the Powers and Patriotism of the Nation. Great in Arts as well as Arms they will now turn their Attention to cultivating the Blessings of Peace; and enlarging the Wealth and Resources of your Majesty's United Kingdom;—united not only in territorial Arrangement, but in the most ardent and pious Wishes, that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign over a loyal and affectionate People.

Signed at the Guildhall of the ancient Town of Winchelsea, this Third Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, humbly beg your Majesty's Acceptance of our most sincere Congratulations on the Accomplishment of your Majesty's Endeavours for restoring Peace to your Dominions.

In attaining this happy Event your Majesty has demonstrated true Greatness of Mind in shewing Moderation in the Tide of Success obtained by the Valour of your Fleets and Armies.

May your Majesty long reign over a grateful and loyal People, and with them enjoy the Blessings of Peace.

George Churchill, Mayor

[Presented by the Honorable Cropley Ashley, one of the Representatives of the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the ancient Borough of Inverness, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and that happy Constitution under which we live, which has been preserved and supported by your Majesty's paternal Care, beg Leave to approach the Throne with grateful Hearts, and Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness in alleviating the Burdens of your People, and increasing their Happiness and Comforts by restoring to them the Blessings of Peace as soon as it could be done consistent with the Honor and Safety of your Crown, the Preservation of our invaluable Constitution, and the Maintenance of that System so wisely formed for the Enjoyment of the Religion, the Laws, and Liberties of your People.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Termination of the War, in which your Majesty was unavoidably and necessarily engaged, and on the Wisdom, Energy, and Firmness of your Councils: on the unrivalled Bravery and able Conduct of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, and the Loyalty and Fidelity of your Subjects at Home, to eminently displayed during the Course of it, all which, under the Favour of Divine Providence, have contributed to the Repose of Europe, and the Peace, Happiness, and Prosperity of your Majesty's Empire.

We earnestly pray, that Almighty God may preserve your Health, increase your Happiness, and long continue your Majesty's Reign, and that at a very late Period of Life, you may enjoy the Satisfaction arising from reigning over a grateful, loyal, and affectionate People, undisturbed by foreign Enemies or domestic Faction.

Signed by Appointment and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council of Inverness, this Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two Years.

John Mackintosh, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and with the most ardent Sentiments of Allegiance, Gratitude, and Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the Blessings of Peace, now given to the United Kingdoms, over which the Divine Goodness has placed your Majesty as a Blessing to a happy and free People.

When we contemplate the Nature of the War from which we are now relieved, the unexampled Difficulties which attended its Progress, and the great Object of Preservation it had in View; (the inviolate Purity of our sacred Constitution, (the Envy and Admiration of the World,) our Gratitude is unbounded to the Supreme Disposer of all Events, who has enabled your Majesty to close this arduous Contest with the proud Pre-eminence of your victorious Navy, and which also leaves a Lustre on the British Soldier, equal in Glory, and in Fame.

Your Majesty's loyal Corporation of Newport renew, at this eventful Moment, their most ardent and fervent Prayers for the long Continuance of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and for every Blessing which your paternal Bosom can receive, from the Prosperity and Happiness of a free, grateful, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twelfth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Paisley, request to express our most unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to offer our Tribute of Gratitude for your Majesty's Acquiescence in restoring to the Nation the inestimable Blessings of Peace: and while we have with Pleasure remarked the Efforts of your Majesty's Subjects in the Defence of the Country, it affords us the more heartfelt Satisfaction to be able to assure your Majesty, that in no Quarter of the Kingdom have your Majesty's Views and Wishes been more strenuously seconded than in the Town of Paisley; and it is our most earnest Prayer, that your Majesty may live long to enjoy the Thanks and Blessings of your People, and that your Happiness and that of your Subjects may be undisturbed by Foes from Abroad, or by Traitors at Home.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the ancient Burgh of Haddington, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts impressed by the deepest Sense of Gratitude to your Majesty for the late Exercise of your Royal Prerogative in the Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty of Peace with France, Spain, and the Batavian Republic.

Feeling, as we did, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, the Misery and Distress consequent upon such extended and protracted Hostilities, combined with the severe Pressure of Scarcity with which these Realms were lately afflicted, though at the same Time admiring the Patience and Fortitude with which a brave and loyal Nation bore up against such aggravated Calamities, we could not view the late joyful Event, without feeling the liveliest Sentiments of Gratitude towards your Majesty as well as to those able and upright Ministers through whose Auspices an Event so desirable has been finally brought to so happy a Conclusion.

We trust that the British Isles now happily united into one great Empire, may long continue under the mild and auspicious Government of your Majesty to enjoy the Blessings of Peace alike undisturbed by foreign Foes and domestic Faction, and that sensible of the distinguished Privileges we enjoy as a Nation, it may be our earnest Wish and constant Endeavour to preserve these Privileges sacred and inviolate, and transmit them unimpaired to our latest Posterity.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Town-Council, in Common-Council assembled.

By James Roughead, Provost.
29th May 1802.

[Presented by the Honorable Thomas Maitland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subject, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Congratulation on the final Success of your Majesty's Efforts for putting a Period to the Calamities of War.

Engaged in a Contest, not for Glory or Acquisition of Territory, but for the Blessings of established Government, the Independence of your Crown, and the very Existence of Religion and social Order in Europe; your Majesty has been not less conspicuous for the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, than for your ardent Desire, whatsoever these great Objects might appear to be secured, to stop the Effusion of Blood, and restore to your People the Blessings of Peace. We rejoice that your Majesty's Exertions, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, have been crowned with a favourable Issue; and, while the heroic Bravery of your Fleets and Armies has, under your Majesty's Exertions, been the Instrument of preserving the civilized World from the Dangers with which it was menaced, your Majesty has been no less successful in finally accomplishing the great Work of a safe and honorable Peace; and thus gratifying the first Wish of your Heart, to secure the permanent Interests of your Empire, and the Happiness and Tranquillity of your People. We acknowledge, with heartfelt Gratitude to the Almighty, the signal Protection, which, in the Course of this awful Struggle, your Majesty has experienced from the desperate Attempts of the Enemies of our excellent Constitution, the Existence and Preservation of which is so closely interwoven with the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the happy Establishment of your illustrious Family on the Throne of this Kingdom.

We beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our unremitting Endeavours to impress on the Minds of the Youth entrusted to our Care, a Sense of the Blessings they enjoy under the wise and auspicious Administration, which, by your Majesty's gracious Appointment, presides over this Part of the United Empire, and to inculcate the Principles of Loyalty and Attachment to the British Constitution, as the best Security for our effectual Attainment of the great End of our Institution, the Advancement of sound Learning, and of the salutary Influence of Morality and true Religion.

Average Price per Quarter on the last Six Weeks.

Average Price per Quarter on the last Twelve Weeks.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said General Average Prices be published in the London Gazette once in Four several Weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON,
Clerk of the Peace.

Durham, June 5, 1802.

Whereas George Mowbray, late of Miln-Houses, near Stanhope, in the County of Durham, Gentleman, died on the 2d of March 1797, having by his Will given his real and personal Estates in Trust for his Brother, William Mowbray, for Life, with Remainder in Trust for the Children of his said Brother, and declared, that if his said Brother, or any Issue of his Body, should not, within Seven Years after the said Testator's Death, appear and claim the said Estates, then the same should be upon other Trusts, and he appointed John Starforth, of Durham, Woollen-Manufacturer, and Gilbert Starforth, his Son, Executors of the said Will: Now, therefore, the said William Mowbray and his Issue, (if any,) are hereby required to appear and claim the said real and personal Estates, otherwise they will be excluded from taking any Interest therein.

Chorley, June 17, 1802.

ALL Persons to whom Rachael Woodrooffe and Mary Woodrooffe, both of Chorley, in the County of Lancaster, Linen and Woollen-Drapers and Copartners, stood indebted at or before the Time or Date of the Assignment of their personal Estate and Effects, (which is dated the 31st Day of October 1800, and was some Time ago advertised,) and who have not yet delivered an Account of their Debts, are requested to deliver Accounts of their respective Demands against the said Rachael Woodrooffe and Mary Woodrooffe to Mr. William Critchley, of Chorley aforesaid, Yeoman, one of the Trustees under the said Deed of Assignment, or to S. Pilkington, Attorney at Law, in Chorley aforesaid, on or before the 1st Day of July now next, or to Messrs. Clarke and Richards, Solicitors, Chancery-Lane. ## A PROCLAMATION,

For Dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Seventeenth Day of August next: We do, for that End, publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burghesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tuesday the said Seventeenth Day of August next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland do, respectively, upon Notice thereof, forthwith issue out Writs in due Form, and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament: And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in Our said Parliament, to be duly returned to and give their Attendance in Our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the Thirty-first Day of August next.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit, to declare Our Pleasure for Summoning and Holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland on Tuesday the Thirty-first Day of August next ensuing the Date hereof: In Order therefore, to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by the Advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy-Rood House, in Edinburgh, on Tuesday the Tenth Day of August next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and, immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to Preserve the Peace thereof during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourself at Windsor the Twenty-ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Sums of Money out of the respective Consolidated Funds of Great Britain and Ireland, for applying certain Monies therein-mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and two, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

An Act to suppress certain Games and Lotteries not authorized by Law.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following Most Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE public Business being concluded, I think it proper to close this Session of Parliament.

During a long and laborious Attendance, you have invariably manifested the just Sense you entertain of the great Trust committed to your Charge. The Objects of your Deliberations have been unusually numerous and important, and I derive the utmost Satisfaction from the Conviction that the Wisdom of your Proceedings will be fully proved by their Effects in promoting the best Interests of My People throughout every Part of My Dominions.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The ample Provision you have made for the various Branches of the public Service demands My warmest Acknowledgments; and My particular Thanks are due for the Liberality which you have shewn in exonerating My Civil Government and Household from the Debts with which they were unavoidably burthened.

Whilst I regret the Amount of the Supplies which Circumstances have rendered necessary, it is a Relief to Me to contemplate the State of Our Manufactures, Commerce, and Revenue, which afford the most decisive and gratifying Proofs of the Abundance of Our internal Resources, and of the growing Prosperity of the Country.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

As I think it expedient that the Election of a new Parliament should take place without Delay, it is My Intention forthwith to give Directions for dissolving the present, and for calling a new Parliament.

In communicating to you this Intention, I cannot suppress those Sentiments of entire Approbation with which I reflect upon every Part of your Conduct since I first met you in this Place. The unexampled Difficulties of Our Situation required the utmost Efforts of that Wisdom and Fortitude which you so eminently displayed in contending with them, and by which they have been so happily surmounted. From your judicious and salutary Measures during the last Year, My People derived all the Relief which could be afforded under One of the severest Dispensations of Providence; and it was by the Spirit and Determination which uniformly animated your Councils, aided by the unprecedented Exertions of My Fleets and Armies, and the zealous and cordial Co-operation of My People, that I was enabled to prosecute with Success, and terminate with Honour, the long and arduous Contest in which We have been engaged.

The same Sense of public Duty, the same Solitude for the Welfare of your Country, will now, induce you in your individual Characters, to encourage, by all the Means in your Power, the Cultivation and Improvement of the Advantages of Peace.

My Endeavours will never be wanting to preserve the Blessings by which We are so eminently distinguished, and to prove that the Prosperity and Happiness of all Classes of My faithful Subjects are the Objects which are always the nearest to My Heart.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the Seventeenth Day of August next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the Seventeenth Day of August next.

Downing-Street, June 29, 1802.

A Dispatch has been received from His Excellency Lord St. Helens, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary at the Court of St. Petersburg, dated June 3d, containing the Particulars of what passed between the Count de Kotschouey and Baron Stedingk, the King of Sweden's Ambassador at St. Petersburg, on the Occasion of the latter's acceding, in the Name of His Swedish Majesty, to the Convention between His Majesty and the Emperor of Russia, signed at St. Petersburg the 17th of June 1801.

This Dispatch states, "That he, (the Count,) after endeavouring to refute the various Objections that had been urged by the Baron de Stedingk against the Tenor of the Convention of the 17th June 1801, and to demonstrate to him that that Treaty presented to the Northern Powers all the Advantages that it had been found possible to obtain, had proceeded to observe, that the antecedent Convention between Russia and Sweden having been in some Sort broken by that which had since been concluded between Russia and England, and to which Denmark had also acceded, it would certainly be advisable for Sweden to accede likewise to that Treaty, in order that she might not remain in a Manner insulated, and that some common Pact might still continue to exist between the Powers of the North."

St. James's, June 28, 1802.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Cumberland, beg Leave to address your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace.

Under that Providence, whose Goodness we have been justly called upon to acknowledge, we are indebted to your Majesty's paternal Care for this Blessing; a Blessing which will be felt not only through the wide Extent of your Majesty's Dominions, but throughout the greatest Part of the civilized World.

Permit us to express our Firm and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Principles of our excellent Constitution.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in Peace and Prosperity over a loyal, united, and free People, is the earnest Wish of your faithful Subjects.

Edward Hasell, Sheriff of the said County.

[Presented by Sir Henry Fletcher, Bart.]

Whitehall, June 26, 1802.

*W*Hereas it has been represented to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that, on Sunday the 6th Day of June instant, as William Woodard and Five other Boatmen, in the Service of the Customs, belonging to the Six-Oared Boat under the Command of Mr. Simon Bassall, Sitter, were out upon Duty on the Cliff at Southwold, about Three o'Clock in the Morning, they discovered a Lug-Sail Vessel and a Lug-Sail Boat (marked on the Stern Fly of Rye) within her, sailing to the Northward, close to the Shore, and pursuing the same along the Shore as far as Easton Cliff, they were there met by Nine stout Sailors, one of whom appeared to be the Master, all armed with Muskets and Cutlasses; that the Officers saw them load their Muskets as they approached, and, upon their coming up, they told the said Officers that they had Goods and did not mean to lose them, and desired the said Officers to turn back as far as the Hedge, otherwise they would fire upon them; that the said Officers were thereupon obliged to retreat, and, after being detained and guarded by the said Sailors for a considerable Time, they were then compelled to go to a Public House at South Cove, where they were likewise confined and guarded by the said armed Sailors until Seven o'Clock in the Evening, during which Time the Whole of the Goods were, as it is supposed, carted off from the Shore and carried up the Country;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover any One or more of his Accomplices, so that any One or more of the said Offenders may be apprehended for the said Offence.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners, J. Hume.

Whitehall, June 26, 1802.

*W*Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Month of May last, several anonymous Letters, written by some Person or Persons unknown, have been sent by the Post directed to John

Scaif the Elder, of Stone Gravel, in the Parish of Chesterfield, in the County of Derby, threatening the Disturbance of the Peace of himself and of his Family, and the Destruction of his Property; and that, on or about the 22d Day of May last, an Hay Stack belonging to the said John Scaif, standing near his House at Stone Gravel, aforesaid, was set on Fire, and the greatest Part thereof consumed before it could be extinguished, and that there is Reason to believe the same was maliciously done by some Person or Persons unknown; and that, since the said Hay-Stack was so set on Fire as aforesaid, another anonymous Letter was sent on or about the 27th Day of May last, directed to the said John Scaif, with the Chesterfield Post-Mark stamped thereon, of which the following is a Copy:

"Once more I make bold to write to you on the occasion which hope you found no deceit from my last—wich in a shoite time will be compleatley finished but now it is your old Friend Alafon's turn to suffer a littel, as well has you all and then you're agen—no dout but you think your loss very grate, but nothing in proportion from what you will sufer—no dout but it was very much alarmeing to all Spectators but the next will be more dreadful and astonishing to your beholders—for my part i dont much admire doing such buiness as that where no profit attends it—I think I shall take another Plan upon Alafons as i understand he his not wanting of Money—but if you—will fulfill my desire I will rest where i am tho' I must have one turn upon Alafon—After your property destroying will be your persons depend upon it"

I am yours"

"your Friend that destroys your property will think no more of taking your life"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Hay-Stack on Fire, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set the same on Fire,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Messrs. Slater and Thomas, Solicitors, at Chesterfield aforesaid.

Navy Office, June 21, 1802.

A PROCLAMATION,

For Dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Seventeenth Day of August next: We do, for that End, publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burghesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tuesday the said Seventeenth Day of August next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland do, respectively, upon Notice thereof, forthwith issue out Writs in due Form, and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament: And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in Our said Parliament, to be duly returned to and give their Attendance in Our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the Thirty-first Day of August next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor the Twentieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit, to declare Our Pleasure for Summoning and Holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland on Tuesday the Thirty-first Day of August next ensuing the Date hereof: In Order therefore, to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by the Advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy-Rood House, in Edinburgh, on Tuesday the Tenth Day of August next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and, immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to Preserve the Peace thereof during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders and Violence whatsoever. And We, strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourselves at Windsor the Twenty-ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

St. James's, June 30, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Chester, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace.

After the long and perilous Contest which we have unfortunately been compelled to sustain in Defence of all that is dear to Britons, we reflect with Pride and Exultation, that amidst the Convulsions of surrounding Nations, we have been able to preserve our Constitution, our Religion, our Property, and our Honour; that we have seen our Commerce and our Manufactures flourish, our Empire extended, and our Liberty remain unshaken; and above all, that, by a timely and judicious Suppression of the traitorous Societies in this United Kingdom, and by the Activity of every Friend to established Order and Authority, we have escaped the Contagion of those baneful Principles, which nearly overwhelmed the Rest of Europe, and which threatened the Subversion of all social Happiness.

We are gratefully sensible, that, under Divine Providence, we owe these invaluable Blessings to the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, and to the intrepid Valour and signal Successes of your Fleets and Armies; and with the utmost Zeal and Affection we assure your Majesty, that though we most ardently wish for a long and uninterrupted Enjoyment of Peace, we shall ever be ready to support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes against all future Aggressions or ambitious Projects of your Enemies.

May that Almighty Power, by whose Permission this United Kingdom has been so effectually preserved, continue to shower down His Blessings upon your Majesty and your illustrious Family, and may you long reign over a loyal and prosperous People.

Geo. Leicester, Chairman.

[Presented by Lawrence Wright, Esq; High Sheriff of the County of Chester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations on the Termination of the late War, and the Return of the Blessings of Peace, and to express our most ardent Wishes, that as the Conflict was long and arduous, the Peace may be secure and lasting.

To these our Congratulations, which we offer to your Majesty as Christians, we beg Leave to add our Wishes as Citizens, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united People.

On Behalf of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants.

Truro, June 12, 1802. Falmouth, Recorder.

[Presented by John Leveson Gower, and John Lemon, Esqrs. Members for the Borough of Truro.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth-Dock, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth-Dock, duly impressed with the great Importance of the Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's United Kingdom, dutifully hasten with profound Sentiments of unfeigned Attachment and Allegiance, to congratulate your Majesty on an Event so happily obtained under your Majesty's paternal Auspices.

In approaching your Majesty's Throne on this joyful Occasion, we cannot fail to add our Testimony to the general Admiration of those unexampled Energies and Achievements which have been so conspicuously displayed by your Majesty's Fleets and Armies in the Course of this long contested and arduous War, a War which has secured to your People their Religion, Constitution, and Property.

We most earnestly renew our Expressions of Regard and Loyalty towards your Majesty's august Person and Family, and implore a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, and the Blessings of Peace.

[Presented by Sir John St. Aubyn, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, in your Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our warmest Congratulations and Thanks for the happy Restoration of Peace in these your Majesty's united Dominions.

Peace, Sir! at all Times the chief of Blessings to Nations, is at the present Period peculiarly acceptable to your People after their extraordinary Exertions in a Course of Warfare so unusually burdensome, sanguinary, and extended.

May the Tranquillity thus re-established by the Wisdom and Benignity of your Majesty's Councils be sincere and Permanent.

May both our Enemies and Ourselves be taught, by mutual Sufferings, the Lesson of mutual Forbearance.

May the recent Pacification between two great rival Nations lead to an happier Emulation in all the Arts and Ornaments of social Life. And may your Majesty long continue to reign the beloved Sovereign and Father of a free, brave, united, and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by James Mingay, Esq; Coroner.]

SIRE,

PERmit your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the ancient Town and Borough of Swansea, to approach your Throne with their sincere Congratulations on the happy Event of a Peace, trusting, under Divine Providence, that it may shower down its usual Blessings on the Land; and to assure your Majesty, that if any untoward Circumstances arising from the Pride, Ambition, or overbearing Spirit of your Enemies should rekindle the Flames of War, that they would be ready, as they have on a former Occasions expressed themselves, with their humble Endeavours and Services to stand forth in Defence of your sacred Person, and the glorious Constitution of the United Kingdom.

Under our Common Seal.

St. James's, June 30, 1802.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, beg Leave to express our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to present our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty on the joyful and happy Restoration of Peace.

Whilst we cannot but lament the inevitable Effects of War, it affords us the greatest Consolation to reflect, that, under Divine Providence, the Glory of your Majesty's Arms, both by Sea and Land, never shone with such distinguished Lustre, as in the late arduous and extended Contest.

The British Constitution hath ever been the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations, and to see the Termination of Hostilities without any Infringement on its Civil or Religious Liberties, cannot but delight every true Friend to his King and Country.

Impressed, therefore, with due Sentiments of the manifold Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we shall not cease to make our Supplications to the Almighty, that Peace and Unanimity may ever prevail amongst us, and that the Crown may long flourish on your Royal Head, and continue with unfading Splendour in your Royal House, to the latest Posterity.

Guildhall, 15th June 1802.

[Transmitted by Sir Lawrence Palk, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace.

We have, during the late arduous Contest, contemplated with Admiration and Gratitude the unparalleled Valour and Military Skill of your Fleets and Armies, the unshaken Loyalty and Fortitude of the great Body of your People, to whose united Exertions, under Providence, it is chiefly owing, not only that our own invaluable Constitution has been preserved, but that the Principles of Anarchy have been refilled and subdued, as well in this as in the neighbouring Countries of Europe, while the Strength of the British Empire has been consolidated.

Under these Circumstances, when the Rest of Europe had withdrawn from the Conflict, we are convinced that your Majesty has consulted wisely for the Interests of your People, in putting an End to the War, while its Honour and Military Prowess stood unrivalled.

We are desirous of cultivating with Sincerity and Cordiality the Blessings of that Peace, to which we are, by your Majesty's Benevolence, restored.

We beg Leave, at the same Time, to assure your Majesty, that we will be ready to support the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of our Country with redoubled Ardour and Spirit, should a Repetition of such Exertions be necessary for their Preservation.

Whitehall, June 26, 1802.

Whereas it has been represented to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that, on Sunday the 6th Day of June instant, as William Woodard and five other Boatmen, in the Service of the Customs, belonging to the Six-Oared Boat under the Command of Mr. Simon Bassall, Sitter, were out upon Duty on the Cliff at Southwold, about Three o'Clock in the Morning, they discovered a Lug-Sail Vessel and a Lug-Sail Boat (marked on the Stern Fly of Rye) within her, Sailing to the Northward, close to the Shore, and pursuing the same along the Shore as far as Easton Cliff, they were there met by Nine stout Sailors, one of whom appeared to be the Master, all armed with Muskets and Cutlasses; that the Officers saw them load their Muskets as they approached, and, upon their coming up, they told the said Officers that they had Goods and did not mean to lose them, and desired the said Officers to turn back as far as the Hedge, otherwise they would fire upon them; that the said Officers were thereupon obliged to retreat, and, after being detained and guarded by the said Sailors for a considerable Time, they were then compelled to go to a Public House at South Cove, where they were likewise confined and guarded by the said armed Sailors until Seven o'Clock in the Evening, during which Time the Whole of the Goods were, as it is supposed, carted off from the Shore and carried up the Country;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover any One or more of his Accomplices, so that any One or more of the said Offenders may be apprehended for the said Offence.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners, J. Hume.

Whitehall, June 26, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Month of May last, several anonymous Letters, written by some Person or Persons unknown, have been sent by the Post directed to John Scaif the Elder, of Stone Gravels, in the Parish of Chesterfield, in the County of Derby, threatening the Disturbance of the Peace of himself and of his Family, and the Destruction of his Property; and that, on or about the 22d Day of May last, in Hay Stack belonging to the said John Scaif, standing near his House at Stone Gravels aforesaid, was set on Fire, and the greatest Part thereof consumed before it could be extinguished, and that there is Reason to believe the same was maliciously done by some Person or Persons unknown; and that, since the said Hay-Stack was so set on Fire as aforesaid, another anonymous Letter was sent on or about the 27th Day of May last, directed to the said John Scaif, with the Chesterfield Post-Mark stamped thereon, of which the following is a Copy:

“ Once more I make bold to write to you on the occasion which hope you found no deceit from my last—which in a short time will be completely finished but now it is your old Friend Alafon's turn

"to suffer a littel, as well Las you all and then
 "your's agen—no dout but you think your los "very grate, but nothing in propoition from what "you will sufer—no dout but it was very much "alarmeing to all Spectators but the next will be "more dreadful and astonishing to your beholders—
 "for my part i dont much admire doing such busi"ness as that where no profit attends it—I think
 "I shall take another Plan upon Alafons as i un"derstand he has not wanting of Morey—but if you
 "—will fullil my desire I will rest where i am
 "tho' I must have one turn upon Alafon—After "your property destroyng will be your persons
 "Depend upon it"
 "I am yours"

"your Friend that destroys your property will think no more of taking your life"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Hay-Stack on Fire, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set the same on Fire,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Messrs. Slater and Thomas, Solicitors, at Chesterfield aforesaid.
